

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sprague's grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Sprague of Detroit were week end guests of their grandparents in Farmington.

Guests of Harmon Boice Saturday evening were Miss Jean Huston and Harold Lewis of Detroit.

Leo Gildemeister is unofficially reported to have paid off three small wagers he made against his being re-elected to the Farmington City Commission Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dickerson attended the funeral of a relative in Detroit Thursday.

P. E. Bradt of the State Highway Department was a caller in Farmington Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Rounds of Detroit were guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sprague of Farmington Easter Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Watson of Flat Rock were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Boice Sunday.

Detroit Lodge No. 552, Degree of Honor, on Wednesday entertained Mrs. Margaret Locke of Farmington, who has been elected to the order. A banquet was served last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Pierce have returned from New York where Mr. Pierce went to meet Mrs. Pierce at the conclusion of her trip to Bermuda.

Mrs. Pearl Smith and sons Caryl and Wayne were Sunday guests of her sister, Mrs. Willard Smith, Kensington road, Grrosse Pointe.

Ladies of the Harmony Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. L. C. Thayer on Wilmarth avenue Thursday afternoon, April 11 at 2:30 p. m. All members are asked to be present.

—Mrs. F. L. Macomber.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith of Boyne City were Tuesday guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Boice.

Miss Dorothy Catherine Davis spent Tuesday in Detroit at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hammett of Nebraska avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant of Eaton Rapids, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tredway spent the week end with their parents in Farmington.

Harold Dunham has returned to his work in the Oakland-Park Sales garage, having partially recovered from the breaking of his right arm.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dickerson returned from Florida Monday.

Mrs. R. N. Crossman and daughter have returned from a several weeks' visit in the South.

Miss Hannah Durward and Mrs. Laura Knowles of Detroit were week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Boice.

Mrs. Leone Tebbels of Detroit spent her Easter vacation with Elizabeth Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jule Koenig of Detroit spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Spuller.

Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, who has been seriously ill, is slowly improving.

Gladya Krumm spent the week end with Rose Edna Larson.

Miss Marion Sahm of Novi was the Sunday guest of Mabel Turner and Alma Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frid of Ovid were week end guests of their son, Harry Frid and wife.

B. A. VanWormer of Detroit was a caller in Farmington Saturday.

Harmon Boice and C. Gerald Parker accompanied Miss Esther Middlewood on her return to Ann Arbor Sunday.

Mrs. F. L. Cook, Robert and Florence Alice, spent Monday in Detroit.

Farmington golfers are already out swinging their clubs over the links. Courses in the vicinity are reported in unusually good shape for this time of the year.

Group No. 3 of the Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet Tuesday, April 9, at the home of Mrs. George Gildemeister. Members who have not turned in their mitt-boxes are earnestly requested to do so on or before Tuesday.

Rev. A. K. MacRea of Walled Lake was a Farmington caller Thursday.

A public pedro party will be given by Wajamega Council, Improved Order of Redmen, at Northville on Wednesday evening, April 17. Pot luck dinner will be served.—Adv.

The Golden Rule Circle of the Ladies' Aid Society, Farmington Methodist Church will spend next Thursday, April 11, at the Children's Hospital of Michigan, on Grand River, sewing for the children. The ladies will gather at 9 a. m. and have pot luck dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen of the Warner Apartments, have moved to Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lake and family have returned from Biloxi. Miss. Mr. Lake has accepted the management of the new Ivyglenn County Club at Whitmore Lake.

Leslie Auten of Buffalo, N. Y. spent Friday with his brother, Ralph Auten and family.

A niece and nephew of R. J. Auten spent Friday with his family.

Mrs. George Gildemeister entertained the Missionary Society Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. L. Cook entertained as guest at Tuesday night dinner Daphness Edgington, who was the speaker at the Missionary Society.

Nellie Shean of Clarenceville is at the Northville Hospital.

Mrs. F. L. Cook with Florence and Robert spent Monday in Detroit.

Theron Pauline is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine W. Evans and children had Easter dinner with F. E. Weber and family.

Mrs. Mitchell of Seven-Mile road suffered a stroke of paralysis and is quite ill.

Miss Eleanor Fenske of Detroit was an overnight guest on Wednesday of Miss Elizabeth Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Vanneman of the Seven-Mile road are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Good Friday.

Mrs. George Howe returned from a trip to Grand Rapids. While away she met with an accident but fortunately she was not injured although her car in which she was making the trip was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Shingee and children spent Saturday with relatives in Keego Harbor.

Mrs. Harry Reinke has as house guest a niece from Detroit.

Mrs. C. P. Tietze was a Detroit visitor on Wednesday.

The Baptist women met at a pot luck dinner Thursday noon for their annual election of officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dennis will move into the Rice house on Lakeview drive.

A banquet was served Thursday evening by the Y. P. L. of Salem Evangelical Church for the confirmants.

William Lake and daughter Nancy, formerly of the Glen Oaks Club visited with Mrs. E. W. Evans in Farmington on Thursday. Miss Nancy is now registered for the Brightmoor High.

Ruth Schroeder is teaching the kindergarten at the Wm. Grace School, District No. 6.

R. J. Auten took his daughter Elaine and Miss Dorothea Kurtz to the Daniel Whitfield School for a number on the P. T. A. program on Tuesday evening. Miss Auten accompanied with piano for a mandolin solo by Miss Kurtz.

John Berkey Shaffer, grandson of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Boice is visiting them, to remain indefinitely.

The regular meeting of the Farmington Board of Education is scheduled for next Thursday evening, April 11.

An Easter supper was served Monday evening by the Ladies' Aid Society of Salem Evangelical Church.

Jack and Charles Spaller of Jackson, Mich., were Friday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. William Spaller, Charles staying over until Tuesday.

For FOOD VALUE
THE LOAF
OF HEALTH

Young America is constantly on the go—full of vitality—and we wonder will they stop! Mothers know that "BAKER BOY" Bread gives their youngsters that vim and vigor necessary for development. Try a loaf today!

Farmington Bakery
PHONE. 75

As Fresh As Spring!

Our groceries, vegetables, fruits and meats are all as fresh as the new season. They're selected for you with the utmost care—from the market's best products—cost less.

PHONE 122—WE DELIVER

Henry Pauline
"Everything For the Table"
Farmington, Mich.

Slippery Dollars

Slippery dollars like slippery streets are dangerous. They take you where you never intended to go at all. Dollars in the bank are non-skid. That's where yours should be. Open an account here today.

PEOPLES STATE BANK of Farmington

PRESENTING

New Sweaters

For MEN—WOMEN—CHILDREN

Off with overcoats! Put away the heavy cumbersome garments of Winter. Enjoy Spring and a feeling of freedom with one of these new, warm, attractive sweaters.

Men will want them for golf. Women, too, and for around the house. Kiddies for play outdoors.

See our display in our windows. Come in and look at the sweaters themselves. They come in all sizes, many colors, and at low prices, considering the very high quality.

F.L. COOK & CO.

F. L. Cook Adolph Nacker
Phone 10—Farmington

Attend!

"The Belle Of Barcelona"

AN OPERETTA

Given by the Music Department of
FARMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

Wednesday Evening, Apr. 10
in FARMINGTON TOWN HALL

Tickets, 35c Reserved Seats, 45c

A Kunsky Talking Theatre

Thursday, April 4
NORMA SHEARER in "A LADY OF CHANCE"
Society Crooks! Inside Thrills! Gun-Play! Romance!
COMEDY ALL TALKING ACT NEWS WEEKLY

Friday, April 5
"SHADOWS OF THE NIGHT" ALL TALKING ACT
with FLASH, the Wonder Dog
A newspaper reporter, a girl and a dog against a city of crime

Saturday, April 6
BUSTER KEATON in "THE CAMERAMAN"
He's back AGAIN—THE LAUGH Panic is on
Two Big All-Talking Comedy Acts

Sunday, Monday, April 7-8
SINGING—MUSIC EFFECTS
D. W. GRIFFITH'S
"Lady of the Pavements"
with William Boyd, Jetta Goudal, Lupe Velez
HEAR LUPE VELEZ SING
"Where Is the Song of Songs For Me?"
Comedy Fables
SOUND NEWS
ALL-TALKING COMEDY ACT

Tuesday, Wednesday, April 9-10
"COMPANIONATE MARRIAGE"
with Betty Bronson—Alec B. Francis
Written and Supervised by Judge Ben Lindsey
Comedy News Weekly
Pathe Review
ALL-TALKING ACT

LIKE SITTING IN A JAPANESE GARDEN