

TOWN HALL FILLED AT PRESENTATION OF MUSICAL PLAY

Ivan Cox Is 'Hit' Of Operetta
Wednesday Evening; Added
Attractions Please

Three hundred or more parents, relatives and friends of students participating in the operetta, "The Belle of Barcelona," and attending attractions, packed the Farmington Town Hall Wednesday night for the presentation by the music department of Farmington High School, under the direction of Mrs. Lulu Loomis.

They thoroughly enjoyed every minute of it, to all appearances, nor was their enjoyment marred by such incidents as that of the followers of the famous tuxedo, Emilio, marched gallily up to the footlights with the words upon the banner "Viva Emilio," upside down. The inspections served only to lighten the pleasure of the audience—and everyone had a good time.

Particularly did one young man appear to be enjoying himself, and he paid the "hit" of the evening. He was Ivan Cox, in the role of Pat, intensely Irish, the more intensely because he was in a foreign land. Not only was Ivan perfectly at home on the stage, but he gave a good voice in his solo, "Woman, Woman," which in theatrical parlance, "stopped the show."

Playing opposite him Lois Murphy, as the heroine's governess, displayed a personality and rivaled "Pat" in popularity with the audience. In addition, she contributed a specialty dance between acts.

June Johnson and Francis Drake were an attractive couple about whose romance the play centered. Johnny Lapham and Winifred Seeley were a colorful pair providing further romance. Elroy Edwards was the ever-necessary villain. Gladys Krugm, a reluctant partner in the plot, Don Ross and Thelma Garlick were the parents who tried to direct the daughter's matrimony. Dorothy Talbot, Marvin Turner, Esther Seeley and Rose E. Edna Larson had parts in the unfolding of the plot.

The chorus was large and attractively costumed. Much of the success of the operetta was credited to the music accompaniment by Roberta Russell. Between acts the director, Mrs. Loomis, was presented with a bouquet of roses by the cast.

Of much interest were two accompanying attractions, the second grade band and the minuet. Director Bobby Stokes was a "miniature Paul Whiteman," in semi-formal attire, and directed his organization with energy.

The minuet, by kindergarten children under direction of Miss Joan Wondergem, was highly popular. The tots were dressed like lords and ladies of olden times. Elaine Auten was accompanist. Mr. Lloyd Pierson drew much applause for his xylophone solos between acts two and three.

HOLLYWOOD

Send News Items to
Herbert L. Lindstrom

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiggle on Monday last.

The boys baseball team in Mrs. Thomas' room is coming along fine. With another week's practice Mrs. Thomas says they will be permitted to play an opposing team of similar grade.

Madeline Brooks was accorded a pleasing welcome by her teacher and classmates on her return to school this week.

More desks have been added to the second and third grade rooms over the week end.

Several children have been absent the past week due to whooping cough.

The school bus is now making complete rounds of the District, roads having been repaired.

The Kind Of Letter We Like To Receive

Here's the kind of letter every newspaper likes to receive:

Miami, Fla., April 5, 1929
Dear Editor of the
Farmington Enterprise,
Farmington Mich.

I wish to inform you that we will arrive home before the next issue of your paper reaches us so you may drop it in Box 425, Farmington Post Office, so we can devour its contents when we arrive home April 15th.

I certainly have enjoyed reading it this winter while in Florida; it gives you a thrill to get the news from your old home town. Very warm here, feeling fine; Thanking you for past favors, I remain
Respectfully yours,
Charles H. Ely.

Starts A New Term

—Photo by Hall, Plymouth

Your water bills, if you are a resident of the City of Farmington, will continue to beat the same handwriting. But Mr. Clerk N. H. Power, starting another term, declares that he has nothing to do with the amounts.

Personal

The Methodist choir accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Lees and a number of church families visited the Bethany Methodist church on Gratot avenue of which Dr. Dunlavy is now pastor, last Sunday evening. The choir sang their Easter cantata much to the delight of a capacity congregation and the pastor offered the greetings of the many Farmington friends of their pastor.

Mrs. Olin Russell spent Thursday in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ely are expected home on Monday.

Mrs. Ruth Baker is getting along nicely.

Isaac Bond spent Tuesday at Owosso.

Mrs. Storms, Mrs. Middlewood, Mrs. Kate Eanfield and Mrs. Boice attended an Eastern Star meeting at Mason, Mich.

Miss Leola Lee entertained her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Ruggles of Milford on Sunday.

George Sanger of Chicago visited his uncle, Ben Meyers last Friday.

Mrs. J. Johnson spent last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Yergin in Detroit.

Sherman Yerkes spent Wednesday in Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Yerkes attended the Aircraft Show in Detroit on Thursday evening.

SERVICES TO BE

HELD FRIDAY FOR MRS. WOODWORTH

Native Of Farmington Dies After
Illness Of Only A Few Days

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Mrs. Mary Woodworth, who died Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. after being ill only a few days.

Mary Nelson was born in Farmington, where she made her home and taught school until December 31, 1891, when she was united in marriage to Willard Woodworth.

After a few years they moved to Pontiac where they lived several years and made many friends until the death of her husband, which occurred December 6, 1923.

After his death Mrs. Woodworth came to Farmington to take up her residence with her sisters. She was well known in this community. She had suffered with organic heart trouble for the past few months.

Surviving are one brother and three sisters, John, Eva, Val and Mrs. May Odenburg. Burial will take place in Oakwood Cemetery beside her husband.

Funeral Services Held For William D. Dohany

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning in Detroit for William Dohany, brother of Mrs. Clara Lapham and Mary T. Dohany of Farmington. Mr. Dohany having passed away on Saturday, April 6.

Mr. Dohany was born in Southfield Township. He was for many years a member of the Detroit fire department, and had been retired. Death came suddenly.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Minnie E. Dohany, six brothers, Dr. John S., Emmet E., Frank H., Charles E., J. Ambrose, and Casper C. Dohany, besides the two sisters residing in Farmington.

Clareville Scouts

Rank First In County

Clareville Boy Scouts, Troop No. 44 won highest honors among 16 troops in the Oakland County area Council, during March, according to a report made public this week. The 16 troops were all awarded efficiency streamers, having attained a rating of 80 per cent or more.

Clareville Troop earned 97 points, the next highest being 95, won by Wilson Foundry Troop, No. 16.

Farmington Supervisor

Made Chairman Pro Tem

Supervisor Harry N. McCracken of Farmington Township was chosen chairman pro tem by unanimous vote of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors Tuesday morning when that body gathered to elect a chairman. Robert Y. Moore, Supervisor of Bloomfield Township, was unanimously elected chairman.

Arthur Lamb, now mayor of Farmington, attended his first meeting as a member of the board Tuesday being one of five new Supervisors.

'Lost Sheep' Wander

About Seeking Lunch

Button, button, where do we eat this noon? So pondered half a dozen members of the Farmington Exchange Club Wednesday noon when they went to the Methodist Church dining-room for the weekly luncheon-meeting—and found it empty.

City Clerk Nathan Power stood, wondering, at the doorway, when Carl Hogle drove up. Neither could help the other, so they stepped into Mr. Hogle's car and drove down to Engel's Barbecue at Farmington Junction, thinking the meeting might be held there. No Exchangees in sight.

They drove back uptown, debating all the way, and passing en route F. Devere Fleming, strolling back to his office, crestfallen, and hungry.

In despair they sought the Enterprise office.

They had forgotten that the Wednesday meeting had been eliminated because of the Aviation banquet given by Exchange Clubs of the Metropolitan Area Thursday evening, which many Farmington members planned to attend.

METHODIST LADIES TO SERVE SPRING DINNER

A Springtime church dinner will be served by the ladies of the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening at about 6 o'clock at 50 cents per plate. The dinner will be followed by an entertainment without charge in the Community hall. This most interesting evening is being presented by the Bell Telephone Company, under the direction of Mr. Cross, the manager of this District. A typical telephone system will be installed on the platform and the comedy and the mystery of the modern telephone will be demonstrated in a most interesting and informing way.

Actresses can appear at only two theatres in Tokio, Japan.

New City Assessor

—Photo by Hall, Plymouth

When Mayor Arthur Lamb decided to be a candidate for mayor, sentiment was manifest throughout Farmington for only one man as his successor. The man was James L. Hogle, former County treasurer.

Public office is not new to Mr. Hogle. In fact, he has held so many he cannot remember all of them, what with his added service in semi-public organizations. Here are some of the positions he could recall, when asked: Farmington Township supervisor, clerk, treasurer, school inspector; County treasurer, four years; Township treasurer; member board of review, City of Farmington; secretary, Tri-County Fair Association; chairman, Oakland County Republican Club; secretary, Farmington Masonic Lodge, 20 years.

HIGHLAND PARK YOUNG PEOPLE COMING HERE

The young people of the First Methodist Church of Highland Park will come to Farmington on Sunday afternoon and present their beautiful pageant, "The Easter Story," in song and pantomime at the Vesper hour which is 5:30 o'clock.

This pageant was so well received at their home church that they have accepted an invitation from Dr. Leeson to visit Farmington. Everybody is invited. The hour is 5:30 p. m. on Sunday next.

The Woman's Community Circle, North Farmington, will hold an old time ice cream social, plenty of games and a good time for old and young. A quilt will be given away.

All are invited to come to the Fourteen-Mile road and Orchard Lake road at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Killing, on Wednesday, April 17 at 8 o'clock.

TWO HUNDRED AT COUNTY RALLY OF EXTENSION GROUPS

State Leader In Home Economics
And County Child Leader
Speak

About 200 attended the County rally held at the West Bloomfield Town Hall Friday evening, April 5.

A nutrition dinner was served at 6:30 and an interesting program was given in the main hall. Mrs. Louise H. Campbell, State leader in home economics extension work of Lansing, spoke on work of the groups.

George H. Kimball Jr., County boys and girls leader, gave a talk for the boys and girls in their club work and had them vote on the subject they were most interested in.

Miss Elizabeth Weld, County home demonstration agent, gave a short talk. Mr. Proctor was introduced as the head of the boys' clubs in this community.

The community sang "I Want to be Happy." A play was given by Wallied Lake group, "Listen In." The characters were portrayed by Mrs. Riemer, Mrs. Giegler and Mrs. Rose. The Wallied Lake choir sang several selections. A moving picture entitled, "The Happier Way," was shown.

Election of County and District Chairmen was held. Mrs. Mark Donaldson was chosen County chairman, (now County member-at-large), and Mrs. Ira Carnes district chairman.

BURR E. ROBINSON, NATIVE OF WEST FARMINGTON, DIES

Deceased Was 42 Years Old; Interment At West Farmington Cemetery

Funeral services were held Saturday, April 6 for Burr E. Robinson, 42 years old, a native of this section, who died Wednesday morning, April 3. The rites were held in Southfield Township, followed by burial in West Farmington Cemetery.

Mr. Robinson was born in West Farmington November 5, 1887, and attended the West Farmington School. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, a brother, Frank, and a sister, Mrs. Bruce Dohany, besides his two children.

Rev. Elmer W. Palmer of Farmington officiated at the funeral services.

Uneasy lies the face that wears a frown.

Garden Tools

Wheel Barrows$5.50
Spades$1.40
Rakes60, $1.00, $1.25
Lawn Rollers$15.00
Lawn Hoseft., 11c

Farm Seeds of Quality

Grim Alfalfa
Common Alfalfa
June Clover
Alsike Clover
Timothy
Sweet Clover
Field Corn
Sweet Corn

These seeds are the best grade we can buy and show high tests.

E. O. HATTON
D. L. DICKERSON

Fertilizer

SHEEP MANURE	50 lbs.—$1.60
SACCO—PLANT FOOD	10 lbs.—85c
LOMA FOR FLOWERS	10 lbs.—$1.00

10c--Seeds--10c

From
D. M. Ferry's Garden
American Package Seeds
Card Seeds—5c packages
15 Kinds of Garden Seeds
sold from bulk
Fine Onion Sets 20c lb.
Best Lawn Seed 45c lb.

Philgas Week

DEMONSTRATION

Let us show you how you can Cook with Gas no matter where you live. This is the greatest convenience ever offered to the urban housewife.

Spray

Lime and Sulphur for your dormant spray should be put on now.
10 pounds$2.10
Arsenate of Lead in 4 lb. pkgs.80c
Nicotine for Aphids; use it now, 6 oz. bot.$1
Spray Pumps$5.00

Repairs for Hardie Spray Outfits

!! Special !!
Virginia Red, large
Gladiolas Bulbs, doz. 30c

Fence

Farm Fence
Poultry and Rabbit Fence
Lawn Fence with fancy top
Flower Bed Guard and Trellis

Home Needs

Paint, gal.$2.90
Kalkom, 5 lbs.$3.00
Varnish, gal.60c
Lacquer, quick drying—all fancy colors, pints$1.20
Turpentine, Oil, Wall Cleaner

WINDOW SHADES

Green, Brown, Tan
65c each
Any special shades to order

LINOLEUM

60c yard and up

MATTRESSES

$10.50 up

Beds, Pillows, Rugs
All Sizes

ROSE TRELLISES

$1.50—$2.00—$2.50

FARMINGTON HARDWARE CO.

TELEPHONE 3.
FARMINGTON, MICH.