The Latch-Key

Farmington Girls Win

Volume` 1.

THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1929

EDITORIAL

BASEBALL!

Girls vs. Rochester Here-4:00 May 23

Boys vs. Plymouth . Here-4:00 May 24

THURBOAY, MAY 16, 1929

EDITORIAL

FIRST feating maccaning the first consistence of the pass backshall account of 18 is 16 in the pass of 18 in 18 in

SCOUTS HAVE HIKE
The Girl Scouts went for a supper-hike Friday hight accompanied by Miss Ridberg and Miss Leonardson, the leaders.
They biked about one mile before they had their supper which consisted of hot dogs, marshmallows and coffee

They hiked about one mile before they had their supper which consisted of not dogs, marshmallows and coffeel

MOTTO IS APPROPRIATE
The motto above the bulletin board this week is quite appropriate in view of the fact that Mother's Day is just past. The motto is:

Who ran to help me when. I fell, and would some pretty story tell. Or kiss they hade to make it well?

My Mother."

THE END OF FREE GOVERN-MENT

When officials come to feel that ideas are dangerous and use their power to restrict free ex-Number 34 subject, we shall no longer live under a free government."Arthur ENTIRE SCHOOL TAKES Garfield Hays in the "Forum."

troit, Michigan, May 6th, 1929.
BRIGGS COMMERCIAL & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, MOTIERRE.

oublished as required by statute.
The foregoing sait involves tille to: Lots 3
rid 4. Eliwood Heichtis Subdivision, Willare
1] Berkler, Township of Royal Oak, Oakland
Causty, Michigen,
Dateel: May 7th,
148RRY J. MERRITT.
May 23 Circuit Court Commissioner.

Lawhead & Kenney, Attorneys, 2219 First National Bank Bider, Detroit, Michigan STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY of Oskland, st.—Suit pending before Harry J. Merfitt, a Circuit Court Columistoner for Sand County, Circuit Court Columistoner for Sand County, publinitis, vs. Stimir E. Kitchen, defendant, Summons issued, and returned that defend and calmod left founds it appearing by afficavit, the control of the columns of the columns of the little of the columns of the columns of the columns of the little of the columns of the columns of the columns of the little of the columns of the columns of the columns of the little of the columns of the columns of the columns of the columns of the little of the columns of