

HENRY GERMAN, 76, NATIVE OF THIS SECTION, IS DEAD

Effort To Be Beside Grave Of Wife In North Farmington
Cemetery Friday

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon for Henry German, 76 years old, who died Tuesday in Harper Hospital, Detroit. Mr. German was a native of this section, and will be buried in North Farmington Cemetery, beside the grave of his wife, who died some years ago.

Mr. German was born March 28, 1853, and had been engaged in farming practically all his life. He was married to Lucy Simmons, daughter of Wellington Simmons, of this section. Harry German, widely-known baseball pitcher of Northville, is their son.

The deceased had for several years lived with a daughter in Detroit. The services Friday will be at Schnader's Undertaking Parlor in Northville.

THREE UNHURT IN CRASH

were Josephine Roe and Winifred Thomas, teachers in the Farmington schools.

As the roadster approached, William Chamberlain drove out upon the pavement in a gasoline truck, which had been at the oil tanks just north of the highway. Edwards, attempting to avoid the truck, swerved his machine to the right, toward the tracks, applying his brakes at the same time. The truck was going from the north to the south side of the pavement, eastbound. The roadster collided with the rear end of the truck and was thrown upside down upon the tracks.

The three occupants of the roadster suffered only slight scratches. The truck was not damaged. It is owned by E. A. Wagner.

Farmington Man Pays Big Inheritance Tax

Two Farmington Township men figured during the past week in the payment to the County Treasurer of one of the largest inheritance taxes ever collected in the State. Luman W. Goodenough, of North Farmington road, one of the executors of the estate of the late David Gray of Detroit, issued a check for $51,000.05, which goes to the primary school fund.

One of the heirs of the estate, which was valued at $10,000,000 is David Gray, Jr., who lives on North Farmington road. Mrs. Martha Platt Gray, the widow, was left most of the property.

BOTH SIDES IN SUITS DISLIKE JURY AWARDS.

Attorneys on opposite sides in suits of William and Mrs. Florence Halliday against William J. Newcomb have filed requests for new trials, expressing discontent with the verdicts of two juries last Friday evening and Saturday afternoon.

William Halliday was awarded the $45 in wages he asked, but the jury in the case of his wife against Mr. Newcomb awarded her only $32, instead of $135 she sued for.

Gerald Meehan, attorney for William Halliday, asks a new trial because the verdict for Halliday is against the overwhelming weight of the evidence. Paul A. Pare, attorney for the Hallidays, asks re-trial of Mrs. Halliday's case on the ground that the verdict is "clearly a compromise." Justice E. A. Fink, who presided at both cases, will hear the requests Tuesday evening.

An Ordinance

Covering Privy Vaults and Water Closets

The City Ordinance covering Privy Vaults, etc., was finally adopted at the meeting of Commissioners on June 16, 1928, to become effective June 1, 1929.

1. Sec. 4 of this Ordinance says in part "any condition inconsistent with this Ordinance the said Health Officer may file a complaint in the Municipal Court setting forth the condition complained of and any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this Ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the Oakland County Jail for not more than ninety days or both, such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court."

2. Wish to call the attention of property owners to this Ordinance and to state that the provisions of this Ordinance will be strictly enforced, to the best of my ability and no favoritism shown.

J. A. MILLER, M. D., City Health Officer.
