CELEBRATION IN NORTHVILLE ON FOURTH OF JULY

Everyone Invited To Come And Take Part In The Big Event

Into every nook and corner of southern Michigan, members of the Northville American Legion are carrying news of the big Fourth of July celebration they have planned for Northville. They want everybody to know about it so that everybody will be at the celebration.

Probably never before has a town the size of Northville prepared such an elaborate celebration program. Starting early in the forenoon with numerous freak races in which every one is invited to take part, there will be no let up in the activities of the day until late at night.

During the forenoon there will be potato races, all track races, peanut races, three legged races—in fact most every kind of race you can think of.

Early in the afternoon a baseball team under the direction of Michigan's most famous veteran ball pitcher, Harry German, a team of Northville players will contest with the team of some other community for baseball honors. This game will be played at the fair grounds where nearly all of the events of the afternoon and evening will take place.

Following the ball game will be seven running races. For these events the committee in charge has secured entries from all over southern Michigan. Some of the most famous runners in the State will be in Northville to take part in the races and from the interest manifested it would not be surprising if the big grandstand at the race track was crowded to capacity for these events.

For the evening's entertainment there will be a big display of fireworks and a boxing contest. Several well known boxers are being booked for this part of the entertainment.

The various committees are so arranging the program that there will be some form of amusement that will appeal to every one who may come to Northville for the gala day.

A special invitation is being issued to you and every one else to pack all your friends in your automobile and spend the Fourth of July in friendly Northville helping the Legion celebrate the Fourth in a good old fashioned way.

Farmington Man New Officer In Company

Of interest to this community is the election recently of Charles M. Samson of Farmington to the vice-presidency of a Detroit concern, Joseph V. Wachter and Company, real estate counselors.

Mr. Samson joined the firm some time ago, after having been associated with Gordon F. Bennett, having had charge of leasing and management of properties while with Mr. Bennett in his new connection. Mr. Samson's work is confined almost entirely to counsel on investments in property.

Business and professional men interested in safeguarding their real estate investments, constantly being affected by changing conditions in both the business, residential and suburban districts, are finding it advantageous to seek the services of those with seasoned judgment who are specializing in this field.

The company with which Mr. Samson is associated, located in the Penobscot building, is among the leaders in this field in Detroit.

Joseph V. Wachter and Company are engaged distinctly and exclusively as real estate counselors, assuming for certain prominent clients the direct management of the individual property and holding of these clients. The Wachter organization is not engaged in the general sales or purchase of real estate other than as it affects the direct interests of the individual client's holdings.

The matter of research work, appraisals and the mapping out of definite real estate programs advantageously to the immediate client investments are various phases. Mr. Wachter is frequently retained by legal firms as co-ordinating counsel where expert testimony or special real estate services are involved.

A professional real estate service based on practical experience is offered those who are not able owing to other duties, to devote the needed time protecting the investments involved.

Orchard Lake village is starting to enforce their ordinance regarding the changing of clothes in automobiles, several persons having been arrested by the village police force, and fines of from $5 to 15 have been assessed, it is reported.

EIGHTIETH ANNUAL FAIR TO OFFER LARGEST LIST OF PRIZES IN HISTORY

The eightieth annual exposition of the Michigan State Fair, to be held September 1 to 7, will be featured by the beginning of a 20-year program that is expected to make the Fair the most famous of its kind in the world long before the centennial is observed in 1949, according to State Fair officials.

The first phase of the program will be the most extensive list of prizes ever offered by the Fair, $126,100. This compares with $120,000 last year; and $107,000 in 1927, the first time it had ever exceeded the $100,000 mark.

A second is the inauguration of a new display program. Wandering exhibitors of livestock and poultry who travel from fair to fair with exhibits, which they display only when certain of winning, will be barred. The purpose is to confine exhibits and prizes exclusively to establish livestock and poultry breeders who heretofore have been discouraged by such "dip" competition, and encourage them to display their stock and to breed better strains.

More than $3,700 has been set aside for prizes for fruits and vegetables of which 200 classes, half of them market varieties of fruits, are expected to be shown. The dairy and apary department has been given $1,285, the largest total ever to be awarded in this section.

The Woman's Work department this year is given $1000. The prizes in the art department, totalling $574, are expected to bring out an exhibition of paintings, etc., equal to that of 1928 when more than $250,000 worth was exhibited.

Any man is wealthy who has good health, a happy home life, a business or profession in which he is happy and therefore successful, a passion for growth and the ambition to be of service and some use to his fellowmen—Robert G. Ingersoll.
