GEORGE BASSETT AND ELIZABETH NORTON MARRIED

Wedding Takes Place At Home Of Bride In Eaton Rapids

At a lovely June wedding Saturday afternoon, June 29, Miss Elizabeth Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Norton, of Knight street, Eaton Rapids, became the bride of Lewis J. Bassett of Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bassett of Farmington.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. W. Bishop of Lansing at the home of the bride, in the presence of the immediate families and few intimate friends.

The house was attractively decorated with vari-colored bouquets of canterbury-bells, bachelor buttons, fox-gloves and larkspur. The same flowers were used to form an altar before a bay window of the living room where the ceremony was performed.

Miss Norton who was given in marriage by her father, wore an attractive gown of pale green shell lace, with a cocktail jacket of the same material. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds, fever few, sweet peas, and orchids.

Miss Marion Hoyt, the bride's only attendant, wore a flesh-colored georgette gown, the shirred collar held in front with a jeweled pin. Her flowers were butternut roses.

Leland Lamk, of Greeley, Colo. acted as best man to Mr. Bassett. Preceding the entrance of the bride, Miss Maple Field, of Jackson sang "At Dawning."

Following the ceremony the wedding supper was served to the fifty guests. The bridal table was centered with a low bouquet of pink and white rose buds with ivory tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bassett have departed on a wedding trip east, and will make their home in Monroe, Mich., where Mr. Bassett is employed at Monroe High School.

A & P STORE HAS A NEW ASSISTANT MANAGER

Due to the continued increase in volume of business at the Farmington A and P Tea Co. store, it has been found advisable to engage an assistant manager. E. J. Stokes, manager, announces. Mr. A. R. Crawford is the new assistant manager.

The store will remain open evenings throughout the summer for the convenience of customers, particularly those living in the country. Mr. Crawford will be in charge of the store during evenings. E. J. Stokes continues as manager.

The store is carrying, besides its groceries, a full line of fresh vegetables, a large portion of which is home-grown in this section, and purchased directly from the farmers.

Adding machines are being installed in the store for the protection and safeguard of customers in making purchases.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Culver of Howell, were the Monday guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Boice.
