

DO NOT WASH CURRENCY

IS DEPARTMENT PLEASE The Treasury Department earnestly requests that you do not launder your money. If you do, you will very likely experience the fate of a Texan who recently sent his shirt to the laundry with a brand new five-dollar greenback in it and got it back with its complexion so altered that he was nearly arrested for a counterfeit when he tried to spend it.

alice out of the expenditures. The laundry powder, however, refused to play with the new ink, and the resulting color schemes kept secret service agents guessing for some time over the expert counterfeiter that suddenly became rampant in the country.

FIRE DESTROYS SUMMER HOME AT TWIN BEACH

Fire destroyed the cottage and furnishings belonging to Harry Zeigler at Twin Beach on Monday night about 9:30.

The cottage, lying by itself back from the main road, was all before the blaze was discovered and by the time the fire department, summoned from Walled Lake arrived, the cottage was practically destroyed.

The cause of the fire could not be learned. The blaze started at the rear of the cottage and when first noticed was blazing briskly. About the same time the rear windows broke and the current of air furnished a draft for the blaze causing it to rage through the building.

The cottage was not occupied at the time of the fire, though it is reported Mr. Zeigler was here on Sunday.

HESS REUNION HELD

The annual Hess reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geigler on Sunday at Walled Lake. Members of the family were present from Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Farmington, Waterford and Highland.

Lawrence Geigler was elected president of the group and Lee Geigler secretary-treasurer. The reunion next year will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Geigler at Highland.

WALLED LAKE EXCHANGE

TO AID BOYS 4-H WORK Walled Lake Exchange Club members will again take up the activities of the 4-H boys' club work. Tuesday, W. C. Proctor, teacher of agriculture at the Walled Lake Consolidated school and local leader of the 4-H boys, attended the luncheon and explained the work.

Financing of the boys who are not able to do it themselves will be taken care of by the Club. Each member will have a boy in charge. Get-together meetings between the men and boys will probably be held during the Fall. A. R. Green, H. G. Roach and F. S. Nook were appointed to have charge of the work with the boy and Mr. Proctor.

Men seem to work best when they are slightly fearful, but not too fearful, of what the future holds in store for them.

EFFICIENT SERVICE

That aching grief has been softened, that debt of love in a measure repaid, if the last rites have been held in an atmosphere of dignity and consideration. Solemnity, courtesy, care and consideration mark our work.

This is one of a series of sculptural masterpieces appearing on the tomb of the Composita Stalioza (Mastery) in Genoa, Italy. This statue, done by Orseno, is of Caterina Camponovo, a humble peddler of hardware, who devoted her life savings to having it prepared while she was still living as she says in her epitaph, "to perpetuate my name."
