Traffic Light Fails

At 'Crucial Moment'

The worst possible time was chosen by the traffic signal at Grand River and Division Monday to get out of order. In mid-afternoon with traffic at a high peak, the red light facing Grand River on the east went out.

Frank Dolson and Harvey Blough rigged a ladder on the back of a car and replaced the bulb, while cars from all four directions game them reason to make haste, for their own safety.

Street Repair Work

Delayed By Drought

The long-continued dry weather has had its effect in more ways than one. Not only are crops, lawns and flowers dried up, but necessary road repairs are delayed by the drought.

Street Commissioner Amos Otis told members of the Farmington City Commission Tuesday evening that street conditioning work which he has in mind must await the coming of rain.

"It would be useless to try filling holes and doing other work now," said Mr. Otis. "The roads are so dry that the gravel would not stay where it was placed. Cars running over would throw it right out."

MISS JOHNSON'S FRIENDS

RALLY, WIN FOR HER

supporters apparently took on new determination to win for her. The result was as ten o'clock and closing of the ballot-box approached, an exciting scramble for votes by friends of Miss Johnson, Miss Westfall, Mary Ellen Fink and Lucille Jacobs, the four leading candidates. Tabulation of the results revealed Miss Johnson in the lead with 27,700 votes, Miss Westfall second with 24,850, Mary Ellen Fink third with 21,060.

Only three prizes had been announced, but Miss Jacobs, winner of the fourth place, was pleasantly surprised when a gift of $10 by a prominent citizen, who insisted that his name be withheld, and a box of flowers by Farmington Greenhouses, were announced for her.

Miss Johnson was awarded the diamond ring; Miss Westfall a wrist watch donated by Chamberlain Jewelry Shop, and Miss Fink a wrist watch given by Farmington Cleaners and Tailors.

The citizen who donated the $10 prize as the contest ended stated that with four leading contestants so closely grouped, it hardly seemed fair to award three prizes, leaving the fourth without some recognition.
