Harry Therger and Edward Meyer were held without bail on a charge of murdering Matilda Bergherman of Muskegon, Wis., whose body was found, bruised and cut, in a shack in which she and her father lived. Her father was at first accused of the murder, but later was released.

After robbing a bank single-handed at Prue, Okla., a bandit was caught by one man. The robber held up the cashier and took $2,000. Then he stole a horse and rode away. The owner of the horse, H. C. Burke, armed with a shotgun, pursued, captured the robber and brought him to jail.

Nine persons were killed and 12 wounded in a battle between 500 armed cowboys and a posse led by the sheriff with deputies and citizens at Ravenna, Wyo. Seven of the slain were among those fighting the cowboys, who lost two killed and six wounded.

Judge Clark at Mason City, Ia., took the case of F. W. Haynes, accused of embezzling $13,000 while cashier of the Bank of Ruid, from the jury and gave a verdict for the defendant. The court held that as Haynes was a partner in the bank he could not legally be guilty of the crime. The case was on trial in Floyd county.

A typhoid fever outbreak at Cedar Rapids, Ia., which the United States public health service has been fighting through fear that steamers would spread it up and down the Mississippi valley, is well under control, according to a report from the surgeon in charge of the work of eradication.

The first testimony implicating Charles Becker in the murder of Herman Rosenthal was given at the trial of the former police officer, accused of investigating the murder of the gambler in New York City. It was testified by Maurice Luban that Becker had said to Jack Rose, "If Rosenthal is not crooked I will croak him myself." Luban identified "Gey" as "Blood" and "Lefty Louie" as two of the men who got the shots that killed Rosenthal.

ROOSEVELT SHOT BY A CRAZED ASSAILANT

A DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO KILL COLONEL THEODORE ROOSEVELT WAS MADE AS HE SPOKE AT MILWAUKEE WIS.,

WITH SURPRISING VIGOR HE CONTINUED SPEAKING TO HIS AUDIENCE.

Surgeons Believe That Injury Was Not Serious and the Candidate Prepares to Continue on His Campaign Tour Through the States.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.—A desperate attempt to kill Col. Theodore Roosevelt tonight failed when a .32-caliber bullet aimed directly at the heart of the former president and fired at short range by a crazed assailant, spent part of its force in a bundle of manuscript, containing the address which Col. Roosevelt was to deliver tonight, and wounded the Progressive candidate for president.

The would-be assassin was partly identified as John Sorenson, a German-American, of 310 East Tenth street, Col. Roosevelt delivered part of his scheduled address with the bullet in his body, his blood staining his white vest as he spoke to a huge throng at the auditorium. Later he collapsed, weakened by the wound, and was rushed to the emergency hospital. There six surgeons assisted in the search for the bullet, but its location and depth could not be determined by probing. It was found to be necessary to make an X-ray photograph of the colonel's diaphragm to locate the missile. It was agreed that it was located so deeply that it was unsafe to do any more probing.

The bullet was located in the chest-wall by the X-ray. Col. Roosevelt had started for Chicago but later, after midnight, returned here, the wound having become more serious. Chicago surgeons were being rushed here on a special train.

GIANTS WIN FIFTH
GAME OF SERIES

MARQUARD IS MASTER OF SITUATION IN CONTEST THAT CONCLUDES 5 TO 2

SCORE, O'BRIEN KNOCKED OUT THE BOX IN SECOND INNING.

Losers Play Loose Article of Base Ball, Winners Show Dash and Vim.

Between the retiring of the second Giant in the first inning of Monday's battle and the demise of the third, five men crossed the plate and a ball game slipped from Boston's grasp, for the Red Sox got only two tallies.

Absolutely all the action that counted was crowded in a very few minutes of New York's premier turn at bat. Six hits, three of which were of the high variety, and the others vigorous slams on the central section of the horse-hide, three stolen bases, including one theft of the home plate and a silly balk by "Buck" O'Brien were the ingredients used to produce the Giants' five tallies.

There was some luck involved in the making of these runs, it is true, particularly in that a couple of slow rollers could not be fielded on account of the damp condition of the grounds, but at the same time there was enough work by New York and plenty of the contrary sort by the Red Sox to entitle McGraw's establishment to what is garnered.

SHE COULD ANSWER FOR HIM

Little Comfort for Candidate in Reason Assigned by Wife for Her Being Confident.

Mr. Williams, one of five candidates for the office of sheriff in one of the northern counties of Wisconsin, was making a house-to-house canvass of a rural district, soliciting votes. Coming to the house of Farmer Thompson, he was met at the door by the good housewife, and the following dialogue ensued:

"Is Mr. Thompson at home?"
"No; he has gone to town."

"I am very sorry, as I would have liked to talk to him."

"Is there anything I can tell him for you?"

"My name is Williams, candidate for sheriff, and I wanted to exact a promise from him to vote for me at the coming election."

"Oh, that will be all right. I know he will promise, for he has already promised four other candidates the same thing."—Norman E. Mack's National Monthly.

Call to Arms.
"Bang" went the rifles at the maneuvers.

"Ooo," screamed the pretty girl—a nice, decorous, surprised little scream. She stepped backward into the surprised arms of a young man.

"Oh," said she, blushing, "I was frightened by the rifles. I beg your pardon."

"Not at all," said the young man. "Let's go over and watch the artillery."

Good Time to Do It.
"Is your daughter going to practice on the piano this afternoon?"

"Yes, I think so."

"Well, then, I'd like to borrow your lawn mower. I've got to cut the grass—some time, anyway."—Judge.
