THE ONLY SHOW.

ROOSEVELT AND RECIPROCITY ISSUE

INSINCERITY AND DEMAGOGUERY

DATE SHOWN.

WHY HE SHIFTED POSITION

He Not Only Favored Reciprocity but Wrote President Taft That He Firmly Believed in Free Trade With Canada.

At a time when the country is divided on the issue of reciprocity, it is interesting to note that President Taft, who is often accused of being a protectionist, was once a strong advocate of free trade with Canada. In a letter to President Taft, dated Jan. 12, 1911, Mr. Roosevelt wrote: "I am a strong advocate of free trade with Canada, and I believe that the United States should have a free trade agreement with Canada." This letter was published in the New York Times, and it was a surprise to many people who knew that President Taft was a protectionist.

Roosevelt for Free Trade with Canada. New York, Jan. 12, 1911.

Mr. President: "It seems to me that what you propose to do with Canada is admirable. I am a strong advocate of free trade with Canada, and I believe that the United States should have a free trade agreement with Canada. As you see, the tariff is a substantial barrier between the two countries, and it is greatly to your credit to make the effort. Ever yours, THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Net result in his letter to President Taft, Jan. 12, 1911, he said: "Here, friends, in Michigan, right on the Canadian frontier, I have a peculiar right to say a word of congratulation to you and to all of us upon the fact that we shall soon have closer reciprocal trade and trade relations with the great nation to the north of us."

And in a speech before the Remond club of New York city, delivered on February 12, 1911, Mr. Roosevelt made emphatic endorsement of the reciprocity issue and recited the following words: "I want to say how glad I am at the way in which the members of the club here have responded to the request of the President. I have heard the President say that he is a strong advocate of free trade with Canada, and I believe that the United States should have a free trade agreement with Canada. As you see, the tariff is a substantial barrier between the two countries, and it is greatly to your credit to make the effort. Ever yours, THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Mr. Roosevelt's explanation is unworthy of consideration for two reasons. In the first place, a letter from him to President Taft, dated Jan. 12, 1911, and his position from whom advice and suggestion had been sought by the president of the United States, and not to admit having hastily endorsed reciprocity without knowing that he was doing so. As a matter of fact, Mr. Roosevelt's letters and speeches above quoted are exactly in line with his record.

More than this, Mr. Roosevelt's explanation is an insult to the intelligence of every citizen. In his letter to President Taft, he says, "I firmly believe in free trade with Canada." This is a statement of fact, and it is a statement of fact that Mr. Roosevelt has been a strong advocate of free trade with Canada for many years. In a speech before the Remond club of New York city, he said, "Here, friends, in Michigan, right on the Canadian frontier, I have a peculiar right to say a word of congratulation to you and to all of us upon the fact that we shall soon have closer reciprocal trade and trade relations with the great nation to the north of us."

Many words of cheer. One of the most encouraging factors in the campaign for reciprocity is the fact that the United States has had in the last forty years and I believe that he deserves reelection. "We do not need any change in the presidency," writes a Wisconsin contributor, "and in my opinion we are not going to have any change. President Taft is an honest, able and conscientious man and he deserves and will receive reelection. In this locality the sentiment is coming in that hundreds of letters, certain similar expressions of opinion. They show in every section a strong feeling that President Taft's splendid administration has made a deep impression and that people do not want a change."

WILL GET MORE SALARY

Promotions and Increased Pay for 12,000 Railway Mail Clerks.

Still more evidence of Republican prosperity and President Taft's sincerity in endeavoring to benefit the toiler was manifested when he recommended to Congress that the clerks in the railway mail service be classified and given an increase in wages. There are 12,000 clerks in that branch of the government's service, and the postal appropriation bill signed by the president carried with it the promotion with increased pay of 12,000 men on Oct. 1, 1912, and those not promoted on that date will receive more pay at the end of the current fiscal year.

The new law provides for three classes of railway postal lines with their transfer and terminal offices, the compensation ranging highest on the lines where the work is heaviest. The minimum with $300 a year, all clerks who render faithful and efficient service receive annual promotions of $100 until they reach the maximum of the successive annual increases, after which they may be promoted at intervals for specially meritorious service until their annual compensation reaches $1,500 in the highest class. Chief clerks in the railway mail service receive $2,000 a year. More than $1,000,000 a year will be involved in these increases.

WANTED TO SHIP WOOL TO THE U. S.

Australian Sheep Raisers Anxious for Democratic Victory.

From the Glasgow, Mont., Independent.

The Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador to the United States has been in Australia last summer, and in a recent speech at Melbourne he cheered the hearts of the Australian wool growers by telling that there was prospect of an early reduction in the American wool tariff. This, he predicted, would mean a large increase in the wool exports from Australia to the United States.

The ambassador is right. That is just what will happen if the wool tariff is lowered, and the Montana sheep men know, because they remember what happened in 1894 when wool wasn't worth anything and when sheep worth $100 were sold for $10. The Democratic members of the ways and means committee of the house, in the recent session of congress presented the wool bill for consideration, and it is now in the hands of the committee. It is a bill that will mean a large increase in the wool exports from Australia to the United States.
