Briving Atter Collision

Sunday Morning

A young woman passenger in an automobile was injured and a milk wagon smashed Sunday, morning when the machine crashed into the wagon on Grand River avehue, near Cass, at 2:15 a. m. The driver was charged with reckless driving.

The wagon, owned by the Farmington Dairy, had been left at the curb by William Pagel, driver. An automobile driven east on Grand River by L. Reynold Johnson, 25, 1202 E, Kirby street, Detroit, struck the rear of the wagon, pushing it up between the curb and sidewalk. Miss Mildred Clark, 30, 1935 E. Grand boulevard, Detroit, who was riding in the machine, was signify anjured about the neck and on Sidewalk. The machine is a supported by the control of th

The mannine is owned by Miss Clark.

Two automobile driver's were arrested by Chief Lee Doyle during the past week, and owner ing the past week, and owner ing the past week, and owner ing the past of the past o ledges and down through a gorge that has long been considered one of Michigan's most beautiful spots, has been recommended to the Conservation Commission as a state park site.

The Falls are in Alger County, 20 miles west of Munising, and three miles north of Dorsey on Highway M-28.

Personal

Fig. for the first black of the first bla

The machine was turned over to a Detroit finance company for proper disposition.

It begins to look like the u-boats might u-boat disarmament

Gd. River Ave.

Mum Time

We have a fine assortment

Mums and Small Pom-Poms

in fall colors. Our stock of Fresh Tulip Bulbs of good grade and size have just

> FARMINGTON GREENHOUSES

Supplies for Men

GET YOUR HUNTING OUTFIT NOW!

The Famous "Soo" Line Blazers—$7.50 Hunting Coats

$9 and $11 Hunting Pants

CORDUROY COVERED SHEEP-LINED COATS, with sheep collar. Big and Warm

$11.00 LEATHERETTE COATS, high grade. A fine coat for all a ound wear $10.50

HIGH QUALL F FLANNEL SHIRTS $2-$2.25-$3-$3.50-$3.75-$4

F.L.COOK & CO.

ADOLPH NACKER

it was due now could you remember, when it was due anywheres? If you had asked me what thee when it was going to get in Niles inside of of what the was due to the your was due to the you without tooking) no book. Well, the next saiton is Granger where the Grand Trunk [crosses and they have huit a new Union Station that will hold 5 or 6 people but never does, but the train has do stop a long while there on the theory that they while there on the theory that they while there on the cheer's that we might be somebody out they want to transfer but mobiney did and I said, that was done had been to transfer but mobiney did and I said, will be you want have no more stops. Ill we get to Niles, but just before we come to that metropolis a bird with a red flag come out on the track and stopped us and it seems like they was a freight coming in the opp, direction on the same and only track and I or the other of us had to back on to a sideling because they didn't neither one of us have the corrage to try conclusions.

Well, the freight was elected thought probly had a more valuable cargo myself teched and we hissed A and rolled into old Niles and when we got off the train the apostic from the House of David was still mapping on this old lays shoulder but she clint look juckled to death.

Misled

Misled "Pardon me." said the little man, "but are you guite sure it was a marriage license you gave me on March 10?"

10?" The clerk prepared to turn up par-ticulars. "I believe so, sir," he said, "but why do you ask me?" "Well, I've led a dog's life ever slove. That's all!"