At a pretty appointed wedding on Tuesday evening, November 26th Miss Florence Ross became the bride of John McClellan of Pontiac, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ross of Division street, Farmington.

Miss Ross wore a becoming dress of dupion crepe and carried a cascade bouquet of allsaman roses. She was attended by Miss Eleanor Talbot, who wore green satin and carried a cascade bouquet of Columbia roses. Miss Gladys Baker played the wedding march from Mendelssohn. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. A. L. Ross.

Frank Clement of Pontiac, assisted Mr. McClellan as best man. The ceremony was performed by candle light by the Rev. E. F. Dunaway of Detroit, before a bay of palms and chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony the couple left for a motor trip to Chicago. They will reside in Pontiac upon their return.

TEXAS GUINAN COMING TO SHUBERT DETROIT OPERA HOUSE DEC. 1st

Texas Guinan, "The Queen of the Night Clubs" and her Gang of one hundred entertainers, will present her spectacular revue, "Broadway Nights" at the Shubert Detroit Opera House for one week only, beginning Sunday evening, December 1, with a matinee on Saturday.

"Broadway Nights" is the most novel entertainment ever presented in a Detroit theatre. It is one grand party from the time Texas arrives at the theatre at 7:45 until 11 p. m.—for Texas and her gang join the audience in making it a great big whoopee frolic. She turns the theatre into a Broadway Night Club, meets all as they enter the theatre—and her gang will also be there to greet you—for its all in fun.

The stage presentation includes a cast of musical comedy and night club favorites, such as Jans and Whelan, Frank Gaby, Joe Phillips, Eric Titus, Eddie Shubert, and Beach, the famous Chester Hale dancers, the celebrated Allan K. Foster Girls, Dolores, Eddie and Douglas, King, King and King, Texas Guinan's New York Night Club Girls and the Texas Guinan Jazz Band.

"Broadway Nights" is an elaborate production presented in over 30 scenes, including many novelties imported especially for Miss Guinan. "The Mechanical Jazz Band" is a German mechanical effect presented in America for the first time, a group of mechanical figures that actually play instruments.

Many parties are being formed in suburban cities to attend "Broadway Nights," an ideal entertainment to attend with your friends.
