A goodly number of ladies braved the snowstorm and gale on Wednesday afternoon to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Martha Warner, hostess to the Farmington

After a brief business meeting the day's program was turned over to Mrs. S. Heeney, Mrs. E.

Switzer and Mrs. Van Volkenburg the committee in charge, who presented a varied entertainment of a Christmas nature. Everyone responded to the warm spirit of Christmas induced by the reading of several appropriate selections by Mrs. McGee, gave for all having to do with Christmas, piano selections splendidly rendered by a little guest, Betty Edgar and the exchange of gifts among those present. After the merry time the ladies were invited to the dining room to partake of a dainty buffet luncheon.

Popcorn balls, tied up in pretty Christmas ribbons, were piled high and in abundance.
