

FIRST PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO CIVIC WELFARE CLUB
 Mrs. Clarence Bicking of Farmington, a former resident of Wall-ed Lake, was the speaker at the meeting of the Civic Welfare Club at the home of Mrs. M. G. Post of Wall-ed Lake, Wednesday.
 Mrs. Bicking was the first president of the organization. It was known at that time as the Embroidery Club. Her talk was on "Gardens." Mrs. J. J. Schulte of Farmington accompanied Mrs. Bicking.
 The next meeting of the club will be held in the Exchange Club rooms with a pot luck dinner on noon.

Methodist Church
 Dr. H. Addis Leeson, Pastor
 "Christ and the Jericho Road" will be the subject of the sermon on Sunday morning. Many of the most significant incidents of the New Testament happened by the wayside—along the ancient high-ways of Palestine. These incidents are the subject of a series of sermons now being preached by the Pastor.

The "Lenten Vespers" are growing in interest and attendance. Seven o'clock is the hour for the Sunday evening lunch, followed by the "Twilight Sing" and various surprise features and a true period of helpful worship.
 Rev. Doctor Pearce of Flint has been secured for an address at the Lenten School of Religion on Monday evening. The churches are co-operating very admirably in this union expression of worship and study on Monday evenings at the High School.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL
 The Methodist Sunday School enjoyed as a special feature last Sunday, a short history story of "The Little Brown Church in the Vale," which is located near Bradford, Ia. They were told how this song has made the "little church" a world-wide famous shrine, also shown a blackboard picture of the little church reproduced from a newspaper cut.
 Come out and help us reach our 150 attendance mark before Easter.

Q. When was the "Era of Good Feeling?"
 A. The years 1817 to 1823 during Monroe's administration.
