FARMINGTON DEFEATS BELLEVILLE, 28 TO 25

In one of the fastest games witnessed here this year, the Farmington quintet downed the boys from Belleville by a score of 28-25.

The blue and white rang up 11 points during the first quarter while Belleville 6 points on leng shots. Captain Lapham and Cox made all Farmington's scores the first quarter.

In the second quarter both teams made 5 points.

At the start of the third quarter Cox and Lapham each made a short shot in quick succession. A little later McCully slipped a nice one into the nets from the foul line and just before the quarter ended he made a free throw. Meanwhile Belleville made 5 points and the quarter ended with the score 23-16.

Belleville in a desperate attempt to overcome the lead of Farmington started the fourth quarter by making 3 baskets which made the score 23-22 in favor of F. H. S.

A Belleville man then fouled Lapham while he was in the act of shooting and he got two free throws. Just as he was about to throw his fouls a Belleville man made some criticism of the referee and Lapham was given two more shots. Then while the crowd waited in breathless suspense Lapham calmly proceeded to sink the four free throws and win the game. A little later he made another foul shot to bring the home team's total to 28, while Belleville made another basket to bring their score up to 25.

Captain Lapham was the star of the game, scoring 5 baskets and 7 free throws for a total of 17 points. Cox also played a good game, scoring 3 baskets for a total of 6 points. Maas played a nice game at center, getting most of the tip-offs besides making a nice basket on a follow in shot.

The guarding of Drake and McCulley was noteworthy. Time after time they broke up shots at the basket and intercepted passes. McCully also made a basket and a free throw.

Earlier in the season Farmington was defeated at Belleville 32 to 19.

SPORTSMANSHIP

A blot was made on the records of Farmington High School sportsmanship in the game with Dearborn which cannot be erased but it can be made less dishonorable if Farmington High School students see that the occurrence is not repeated.

Sportsmanship is made up of three qualities: courtesy, fairness, and respect for others. Let us put our school first in sportsmanship; not only by being respectful to our ranchers, fair in our school work, and courteous to each other; but also by displaying all of these qualities on the sidelines at all games.

When our team is behind let us be good sports and cheer them on even if they cant win. If a player or the referee makes a mistakes let's not criticize him. The referee does his best because he knows that if he is unfair to one side they will never want him again. Players usually try to do their best, knowing that if they fail they may be taken out of the game. Of course there are exceptions, but whatever happens let us not "boo" a referee or "hiss" a player.

Let us not forget that Farmington High School has always been noted for its good sportsmanship; let us hold the torch of sportsmanship high and make all of our games victories regardless of the score.

VOICE OF F. H. S.

The Latch-Key is interested in giving the high school a nickname of some kind which would make news articles more interesting and add volume to school yells. They have in mind names, such as those used in Colleges and high schools, for example: the Spartans, the Titans, the Rocks, the Colts, etc.

Upon interviewing its was learned that Francis Drake is in favor of it and says. "Have the whole school hand in names to the athletic department; they will pick three of the best ones, and the entire school vote for the final name."

Edward Measel says. "I suggest that the student body hand in names and the Student Council pick the best one. A small group could decide on a better name than the entire school."

SENIORS CONTINUE SALE

The senior class rummage sale held in Brightmoor last Saturday, was quite a success. although the class did not succeed in disposing of al their goods. They will continue the sale at the same place next Saturday. The returns from last week's sale were about $30.

Eight senior girls, aided by Miss MacKellar, Mrs. McCulley, Mrs. Seeley, and Mrs. Perry, had charge of the work. They were ably assisted by "Bill" Starkey, '28, who helped them by taking care of all men customers. Bill proved a model salesman. and they have secured his services for next Saturday too.

LIBRARY CORNER

Three new sets of handsomely covered books have been added to the reference material in the library.

They are bound editions of the Atlantic Monthly, Current History and National Geographic magazines. They have been recoverde in blue, green and red covers, respectively. Library funds were used for the purpose.

A readers' guide has been ordered which enumerates every important topic that has been published in the magazine and the page where it may be found.

This is a great asset to the library and it will be wise to use these books as much as your spare time will permit.

HIGH PROGRAM CHANGED

A change has been made in the dismissal of the high school at noon. Starting Wednesday, January 29, at the ringing of the second bell at noon, all students are dismissed without returning to the study hall.

Previous to this time, the students would return to the assembly where the announcements were made. This would sometimes take from ten to fifteen minutes from the lunch hour. All announcements to be made hereafter will be placed on the blackboard in the front of the assembly room.

DISCUS $4.00 SHORTAGE

A four dollar shortage in the reforestation fund was discussed at the regular meeting of the student government body on Wednesday, January 29. It was finally decided to charge fifteen cents admission to the girls' game with East Detroit to make up the amount needed.

Other business taken up was the issuing to the faculty of semester tickets which will admit them to all home games.

It was announced that as soon as the committee on the constitution has the document prepared, a special meeting of the student council will be called to adopt it.

GIRLS DEFEAT DETROIT

The Farmington Girls' basketball team won its second league game here. Friday, February 31 at 4 o'clock when they defeated East Detroit 23 to 33. Farmington led at half time 21 to 10.

The game was speedy. Viola Lamb threw the ball in from all directions and accounted for most of her team's points. Captain Eleanor Perry, playing forward for the first time, showed ability.

The opposing forwards were well guarded by Gladys Krumm.

In the first half, Farmington outclassed their opponents and made more than twice as many points. Although the visitors were greatly improved in the second half they shortened Farmington's big lead by only one point and were at no time closer than four baskets to victory.

The Lineup:

Fordwards, Viola Lamb, D. Murphy, Lucille Jacobs and Eleanor Perry; jumping centers: June Johnson. Lucille Jacobs; side centers: Dorothy Owens and Lena Shefpo; guards: Eleanor Perry, Gladys Krumm, Hedwig Schoen and Lena Shefpo.

Quintets At Northville

One of the most interesting games of the season, will take place Friday of this week with Northville on their own floor.

Northville defeated Farmington 22 to 16, in a last minute rally in the first league game of this season. Since then they have continued their winning streak and are now among the leaders of the league.

It is but five miles there, and there are good roads all the way. Therefore, the Farmington players are expecting good support on the side lines.
