LIBRARY REPORTS REFERENCE WORKS IS MORE DEMAND

Greater Call For History And Biography; New Books Received

The Farmington librarian reports an increasing demand for books of reference, history, biography, etc., and it is the policy of the library to supply this demand as far as possible. For pupils of our school who are seeking data for Lincoln Day programs we recommend Beveridge's "Life of Lincoln," "The Tragic Era" by Claude Bower and "The World History" to give them the needed help.

Partial list of books received at Farmington Library from September to January 30, 1929:

- Storm House
- Red Silence
- Galaxy
- Burning Beauty
- Guarded Halo
- White Oaks of Jalta
- The Tragic Era
- Hide in the Dark
- Perched Jasher
- Doomsday
- Moby Dick
- Little Shepherd of Kingdom
- Come
- Phyganian's Jewels
- River's End
- Silver Spono
- Top of the World
- Rainbow Valley
- Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm
- Life of Herman Melville
- Oil
- Splendor of God
- Blair's Attic
- Freckles Comes Home
- People of This Town
- Listening Post
- Fighting Caravan
- History of the World, 10 vol.
- Johnny Reb
- Hudson River Bracketed
- Black Hunter
- Red Wood and Gold
- Dance Magic
- Five and Ten
- Ultima Thule
- The Merrivales

INDEPENDENTS ARE DEFEATED TWICE ON HOME FLOOR

New Hudson and General Motors Basketball Team Prove Too Powerful

The Farmington Independent basketball team suffered two defeats in the past week, the two opposing teams being of class A caliber. On Saturday Farmington met a team from New Hudson and were defeated 32 to 7. The New Hudson team had played together for several years and their experience was too great for the Independents to overcome. Two of the home team were absent.

Another game will be played with this same team February 18 in the High School gymnasium. This promises to be a much better and faster game than the previous one because of the experience the Farmington five are receiving by playing several games before this date.

The lineup was as follows:

Farmington	New Hudson
Spaller	RF
Walters	LF
Schweim	C
	B. Kluck
	Roberston

General Motor Wins
 On Tuesday the Farmington Independents played the General Motors Froving Grounds quintet at Farmington. The visiting five ran the score up to 38 points in the first half but the home squad braced up at the start of the third quarter and held the General Motors to 6 points during the second half although they were defeated 44 to 14.

The game was fast throughout with both teams breaking fast on offense but the Farmington quintet was weak on defense.

The lineup was:
 Farmington General Motors
 Walters (c) .....RF .....Slaughter
 Drake .....LF .....Fascea
 Schweiim .....RC .....Coppens
 Spaller .....RG .....Walstrom
 Young .....LG .....Price

Substitutions for Farmington:
 Robinson for Spaller, Gen. Motors; Dempsey for Fascea; Cowell for Coppens; Filton for Price; McKemie for Walstrom and Price for Walstrom.

The Independents play Northwestern A. C. Sunday, February 11 at 7:30 at High School. Everybody is invited.
