

THEY'RE CAREFUL TO AVOID SIGNAL— "THERE'S A REASON"

Fifteen Gallons Of Spirits Reported Found In Car With "Careful Driver"

Three men who were driving in a touring car were very careful in Farmington Tuesday evening. They were so careful that they didn't want to take a chance on stopping at the signal light at Grand River and Farmington roads. They went around it. The car had been spied by Deputy Sheriff William Tamm at Farmington Junction. He suspected it contained liquor. Following it uptown, he saw the driver turn west at Warner avenue, to Oakland avenue east, then west again to Grand River. At the intersection the car was stopped.

According to the police, two five-gallon cans of moonshine and one five-gallon can of alcohol were in the car. Three men were arrested. They gave their names as Ray Lloyd, 44, Claude and L. D. Conklin, 31 and 29 respectively. Police said a roadster had been following the touring car also.

Many Names Suggested In $10 Prize Contest

A large number of coupons have been received by E. J. Stokes, manager of the Farmington A. and P. store, in his quest for a name for his Newfoundland-poodle dog.

Three Farmington citizens, Ben Meyer, Ben Storm and Stanley Smith, are to act as judges, and Mayor Arthur Lamb will announce the winner at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, February 22, in the A. and P. store. The award will be $10 worth of groceries. Coupons must be in by Friday noon, February 21. A coupon is printed on another page of this issue.

FARMERS' WEEK RECORDS FOR ATTENDANCE FALL

All previous Farmers' Week attendance records were sunk by the tides of visitors which surged about the Michigan State College campus last week.

Eight thousand people watched the events on the general program at the Michigan State College. One thousand guests attended the Farm Bureau banquet at the same time.

Dairy breed association meetings on Monday brought larger groups than usual to these special meetings and the banquet given by the associations had to be conducted under special rules to take care of the overflow which could not get into the regular banquet rooms.

ADDED PRIZES OFFERED A O. E. S. PARTY FEB. 25th

Arrangements for an unusually large card party on the evening of February 25 are being completed by the Farmington Chapter O. E. S. Besides the prizes for men and women with best scores, three door prizes will be given. The event being planned for March 18 by the Chapter is a St. Patrick's Day dance. Instead of a card party as stated in last week's issue of the Enterprise.

WALLED LAKE TROOP GIRL SCOUTS TO OFFER PROGRAM AT CHURCH

Walled Lake Girl Scouts are planning a program for the Sunday evening service on February 18th at Walled Lake M. E. church. The program, which consists of a play ceremony, repeating of the Girl Scout promises, laws, etc., Girl Scout hymns, musical numbers by members of the troop, and short speeches by the girls on various phases of scout work. Rev. Ede, the Walled Lake troop committee, and leaders extend the Girl Scouts' parents a special invitation to this service, also a cordial invitation to anyone interested in girls and girl scouting. Mrs. R. A. Herron is leader of the troop.

Walled Lake troop is entering a County contest. "Three times during the next few months the troop will be visited at regular troop meetings by a member from the Scout headquarters at Pontiac. On the nights visited some of the points of that will count are as follows: If every Girl Scout present has attended a church or Sunday School service on the previous Sunday, if every registered Scout having read the American Girl, if the meeting has been planned by the girls, if at least 20 minutes of the meeting was presided over by one of the girls, for each new tenderfoot, second, or first class Scout registered; or for girl winning merit badges; or being 100 per cent registered, and any community service work that the troop does.

The girls are planning on attending the Father and Daughter banquet at Pontiac on Friday evening, February 14.

PIONEER SOCIETY TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING FEB. 22

Farmington Members To Attend Banquet And Program At Pontiac

Farmington members of the Oakland County Pioneer and Historical Society will attend the annual meeting and banquet of the organization at Pontiac on Saturday, February 22. The meeting will begin at 11 o'clock and continue through the afternoon.

Nathan H. Power of Farmington is first vice-president of the Society, and Supervisor Harry N. McCracken fourth vice-president.

Besides the customary reports and toasts, there will be features of special interest, including an address by Prof. R. Clyde Ford of Ypsilanti on "The Forest Primeval" and pioneer music by Joseph Brooks and James B. Wood of Southfield.

The Society is to consider this year whether a change will be made in the date of the annual banquet. The gathering will be in the First Presbyterian church at Pontiac.

Northwestern A. C. Is Superior To Alumni

The Farmington High School alumni found Northwestern Athletic Club's basketball team too powerful in their contest played in the Farmington High School gymnasium. Northwestern won by a decisive score of 35 to 12.

Northwestern's team expects to enter the tournament at Ypsilanti, beginning next Monday, February 18.

An important meeting of the Club will be held next Monday evening at 8:30 p. m. in the club house. All members are urged to be present.

The Club will give a dance next Wednesday evening, February 19, in the clubhouse. Music will be provided by "Irv" Unger's Orchestra. The public is invited.

EPWORTH LEAGUES OF COUNTY HAVE MEETING

An interesting and varied program featured the rally of Oakland County Epworth Leagues at Walled Lake Methodist Church on Monday evening. A large group of Walled Lake young people were present and a corresponding group from other leagues in the County.

The main talk of the evening was a ten-minute rapid-fire address by Rev. Marshall Reed of Ypsilanti, State Epworth League president. He packed a good many words into the short time he talked. He stated what he thought to be several characteristics of religion. These were, that "Religion ought to be joyous, a natural expression of life, useful and manly or womanly."

The program followed a pot luck supper. Rev. Bert Ede, minister at Walled Lake and County director of Epworth Leagues called on Junior Bentley, president of the Walled Lake League to welcome the visitors. Dudley Mosher, County president, replied and then took charge of the program. Miss Lela Roberts of Northville, district president, gave a short talk. Several vocal selections were given by the Pontiac delegation.

Dr. John E. Martin, district superintendent, lead in prayer. Several members of the Ypsilanti League and students at the Michigan Normal, accompanied Rev. Reed and gave some musical numbers and short talks. John Hoopmann, a native of South America, sang two songs of his native land, accompanied by a guitar.

HUNT LAW LEGAL

The Michigan Sunday hunting law is legal and constitutional and attempts to limit it through the courts on unconstitutional grounds would be futile, in the opinion of the Attorney General's office.

M. M. Larmouth, assistant attorney general, talking to representatives of sportsmen's organizations at a meeting held at Lansing, said that under the Sunday hunting law as it stands today, hunting may be stopped on Sunday through a referendum vote in a particular county.

MOTHER AND FIVE DESTITUTE, WORK SOUGHT FOR SON

Job Wanted For Youth To Aid Family; Income Is $8.80 A Week

Have you a job for a young man—or do you know where one may be obtained?

An appeal has been made to the Enterprise readers to help in securing work for this young man, whose mother and four brothers and sisters are reported in serious circumstances. The father died some months ago, leaving the widow with her five children, ranging in age from 2 to 18 years. The oldest boy, who is strong and willing to work, has looked far and wide for a job, without success, according to a neighbor. He will do any kind of work.

The family's only source of income is a mother's pension, which is $8 a week, approximately $85 a month, of this $20 is required for rent.

Anyone knowing where a job may be obtained by the boy is asked to communicate with Walter Behahn, R. F. D. No. 2, who will notify the boy, or with the Farmington Enterprise.

MUST BE REGISTERED

Chief of Police Lee Doyle of Farmington has issued a warning to all owners of small guns, that in compliance with the law, all firearms less than 30 inches in length must be registered. He also states that the possession of a gun registration certificate does not entitle the holder to carry the gun around. Guns being kept as relics and antiques need not be registered.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

Howard Bond of North Farmington was among a large number of candidates who were admitted to practice in federal court recently by Judge Arthur Tuttle of Detroit. The group consisting of 25 was the largest number of attorneys ever admitted at one time in Detroit.

MEET ON TUESDAY
Farmington's City Commission will meet next Tuesday evening, instead of on Monday, the regular meeting date, due to the Past Masters' Night gathering at Farmington Masonic Lodge Monday night. The Commission will meet at the usual hour, 7:30 p. m.

Say it with an Enterprise Liner.

With three passengers, A. H. Patterson left Stockton and headed for the rough Yosemite Valley country and the terrific grade leading to the famous Glacier Point. The only gear change between Stockton and Yosemite Valley was made 97 miles from Stockton where deep ruts made by the wheels of logging trucks were filled with water and ice.

"What's The News"?

WHEN COLUMBUS and his caravels returned from the New World, the first question shouted from the shore was, "What's the news?"

That's always the question of paramount importance. Years ago folks asked it of the post rider, the soldier returned from the wars, the man who had been down to the settlements, or the neighbor back from the general store.

Today, you find the answer in your newspaper. Through the newspaper the news of the world and of the community quickly becomes public knowledge. And remember this—it takes two kinds of news to make a modern paper complete.

The first tells of happenings near and far—of fires, sports, elections, accidents, marriages, deaths, great men, great events.

The second tells of things you eat, wear and use—things you buy, things being sold to your friends and neighbors. This news is advertising.

It's just as important to keep up to date on the advertising in this paper as it is to read about what's doing in the world of events.

Advertising is an essential news service.

It is distinctly to your advantage
