WEST POINT PARK

At the Community Club Wednesday afternoon plans for the annual pie walk sponsored by the ladies of the north end were completed. Mrs. Hannah Ault is chairman. The date is March 15. This affair has proven very popular in past occasions and a large crowd is expected. Besides the pie walk there will be dancing, music, sandwiches, pie and coffee. Mrs. Iva Brundage of the Trumbull Avenue Church was guest. Plans were discussed for the raising of money and a number of ideas were adopted. Mrs. Lillian Owen and Mrs. Mable Ault will be joint hostesses at the next meeting of the club. William Hawley and family were week end guests of Mrs. Clifford Cochrane.

The P. T. A. meeting last week was a most interesting meeting. Miss Gwinn, social worker, spoke ably on the difference in the attitude of parents and teachers in discipline of children. Fern Ault gave a reading and the high school pupils did an Irish reel under the direction of Mrs. Harrison, principal. Election of officers resulted in Mrs. Hannah Ault being made president, Mrs. Florence Brandt vice-president, Mrs. Ernie Ash secretary and Mrs. Dorothy Edwards treasurer. Mrs. Earl Wolfe, retiring president, has very ably filled her office for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nacker motored to Ipswich where they spent the day visiting relatives. Dr. Guy S. Kiefer was expected to give vaccination at the Wilcox School Monday but failed to appear.

Mrs. Charlotte Wolfe had as visitors from Essex, Ontario, nephew, Joseph Wolfe and wife. Also Mr. and Mrs. James Fields of Detroit called Sunday.

Mrs. Donna and Mrs. Bare of Inca, also Mr. and Mrs. William Wroelke of Chicago were visitors at the home of Mrs. Hunchman of Charlotte avenue Sunday.

Mrs. A. A. Schmidt, who is spending some time with her mother while under the doctor's care, made a trip to Grand Rapids for a few days.

The Saturday Evening Pedro party was the largest ever held in the Community Hall. Several couples had to be turned away. Prizes were won by Mrs. Walter Schweitzer, Mrs. Joe Voeckel, Mrs. Ray Milburn, Carl Waack, C. Billing, H. Wolfe, Jr., and Elmer Markey. Twenty-five tables were in play.

It was announced at the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening that all officers and those who are interested are requested to meet at the home of the president, Miss Beulah Gullen.

Owing to the illness of Supt. Lloyd Gullen, the Sunday School was under the direction of Mr. Tooley of Redford and Mrs. R. Fredericks, assistant Sunday.

The Livonia town caucus takes place Saturday, March 15 at the Livonia Town Hall. Election follows April 7th.

Mrs. D. V. Mitchell of Glenwood boulevard, gave a birthday dinner for her sister, Mrs. Walter Turpin, who has recently come here from Danesville, O., to make her home in Birmingham where her husband is employed. Among those present were, Walter Turpin and son, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Powke, and Miss Garnett Brown of Detroit, also Arthur Howe of Canada.

Little Miss Elmore LaVine made a charming hostess to nine school mates Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her ninth birthday. Games were played and lunch was served by the little girl's mother. The property known as the Herman Trapp place, owned by Mr. Walker, has been sold to Frank Rush of Detroit. Mr. Rush with his family will take possession at once.

Thursday evening there will be another meeting of the baseball team held in the Community Hall. Further plans for the season's activities will be discussed.

Mrs. Thomas Davey has left for Cincinnati where she will spend a week with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Darnell.

Andy Hann has returned from a business trip to Chicago. Charles Taylor is driving a new sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gullen will spend the week end in St. Louis, Mich. Mrs. Anthony, of Rosedale Park, mother of Mrs. Gullen, will care for the family during their absence.

The house on Glenwood boulevard, built and owned by Mr. Hattu has been sold and is occupied by the present owner, Mr. Pettys and family, formerly of Wixom. The property consists of one-third acre of ground, a modern two-story full basement house and two-car garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owen, Kenneth and Billy were guests Saturday of the latter's mother, Mrs. Eva Rowe of Detroit.

Mrs. Ethel Middlewood and daughter, Barbara, spent Sunday evening with the former's sister, Mrs. Ada Stewart, on Greenfield road, Detroit.
