

The Farmington Enterprise

FORTY-SECOND YEAR—No. 20.

THE FARMINGTON ENTERPRISE, FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1930

5c A Copy; $1.50 A Year

CLARENCEVILLE

Mrs. C. H. Witte
Phone 213-F2

Mrs. J. Elliott was called to Grand Rapids on Thursday due to sickness of her brother.

Mrs. Francis Irish and son Russell who have spent the winter in Hillsdale have returned to their home on Glen avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schweizer spent Saturday evening with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Schweizer Sr.

Mrs. Carl Waack entertained the Cheerful Circle on Tuesday afternoon. "Fit" was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jensen and grandchildren, Donald and Sally Rogers spent Sunday with the former's brother, A. W. Jensen at Sherlock, Mich.

Mrs. Helen Wagner entertained the Afternoon Base Line Card Club at her home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schweizer spent Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Hough.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Foley, Brighton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jensen on Thursday evening.

Mrs. George Parmenter entertained the Middle Belt Card Club at her home on Saturday evening. The next meeting will be March 29 at the home of Mrs. E. P. Munroe.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Menke and son Fred attended the party given by Ladies' Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in their club rooms in Detroit on Saturday evening.

Mrs. F. Munroe, Seven Mile road, spent Thursday with Mrs. O. Jensen.

Mrs. C. H. Witte spent Thursday evening at Pontiac where he has a class in wood carving.

Floyd Hallock spent Tuesday in Jackson at the Seventh Area meeting of the Boy Scouts of America.

Clarence Aldrich of the Aldrich Nurseries gave a splendid talk on shrubbery at the Redford Woman's Club on Thursday in the parlors of the Redford Methodist Church.

Mrs. Mary Herman, 78 years old, who died on Sunday evening was laid to rest in Grand Lawn Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon. She will be remembered as the mother of Tom Kelly, Sr., Park boulevard.

The supper given by the tenth grade at the Central School on Base Line road was well attended.

Walter Headeler will give an invitational party at the Claronville Oddfellows Hall Saturday evening, March 22. All Rebekahs, Oddfellows and friends who have formerly attended Mr. Headeler's parties are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ransier visited friends and relatives in Otesgo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilcox, who have spent the past months in Grand Rapids, have returned to their home here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ransier motored to Waterford Saturday to visit the former's sister, Mrs. M. Jensen.

Clarenceville Parent-Teacher Association held its regular meeting and election of officers on Monday evening, March 17.

Miss Vida Walker gave a most interesting talk on Girl Scouts. Election of officers took place. Floyd Hallock being elected president, Morton Bates, first vice-president, John Wagner, second vice president, Mrs. Ray Owens, third vice president, Miss Vida Walker, secretary, Mrs. Robert Jones, treasurer, Mrs. Ed. Edstrom, historian, Mrs. Linn Herrington, retiring president, has very ably filled her office the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waack visited relatives in Byron, Mich., over the week end.

Troop 44 with the assistance of their committeemen will give a card party in the Oddfellows Hall Friday evening, March 28.

Pedro and dancing are planned. The party is to help send the boys to camp this summer.

Doctor and Mrs. Elsie of Detroit spent Monday morning at the home of Doctor Rowaldt.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Waack, Orchard Lake drive, spent Friday evening as guests of Mrs. Robert Jones.

Sunday, March 23, Troop 44 of Clarenceville with the Farmington Troop, will attend morning services at the Baptist Church, Farmington.

Mrs. Howard Nelson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rea of Strathmoor were entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. F. Menke.

Miss Evelyn Meek attended the basketball game at Ypsilanti Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Hazen and daughter, Margaret were among the guests at the Robertson home Sunday.

Miss Julia Booth and Miss Vida Walker attended the flower show in Detroit on Sunday.

The dance given by the Northwestern Athletic Club in their hall on Wednesday evening was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Menke visited at the home of Mrs. William Judge in Detroit Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thistle and son of Detroit were callers at the home of Mrs. Otis Jensen on Wednesday.

Cooked vegetables, eggs, fats and left-overs should be held at a temperature not over 50 degrees. Berries and cooked meats are a little harder to keep properly and a temperature of not over 48 degrees is recommended by the Bureau for such foods.

A man's face may be his fortune but some men acquire a fortune on their faces.

Southfield Community

Redford 0699-M

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. Kohler, Indian avenue, on Sunday, March 9, a son.

Guests in the John Haps home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Lynch of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Bert McMann of Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Price, Seminole avenue, had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young of Toledo, O., and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McClure of Belleville.

A baseball club composed of two teams, the Cubs and the Seniors, has been organized and will be sponsored by the S. C. A. Officers for the Seniors are, Lewis Woosest, manager and Howard Kennedy, treasurer. The Cubs elected Thomas Harding manager and Chadwick Haps treasurer.

The two teams had their first trout Sunday and the Seniors won the game 26 to 11. Games have been scheduled for the first three Sundays in April provided the weather is favorable.

Mrs. William Eckler, Miss Eva McKenzie and Miss Nancy MacDonald attended the benefit bridge given by the Northwestern Business and Professional Women's Club at the Totem Pole Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lydia Lambert and daughter Dorothy of Detroit spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gridley.

Next Wednesday afternoon, March 26, the S. C. A. Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. H. B. Kennedy, Seminole avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renaud, Indian avenue, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fields in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Joy and daughter were guests of the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Milan Joy in Detroit Sunday.

Several from this community attended the funeral of George Gunn Tuesday afternoon in West Point Park. Mr. Gunn was well known here, having been a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Matheson and a brother-in-law of Lewis Dowsett.

Simon Zylstra, Farmington and is spending two weeks with his nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harrington in Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. William LaForge, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Monette and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Burns and their families spent Sunday at their cottage on Cedar Island Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Manley and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Filgau of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Werner Sunday.

The John Grace P. T. A. will hold its annual meeting and election of officers in the Community building Thursday evening, March 27. It is hoped all members will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lamb,

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Parry, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Drow, Mrs. Carl Fuks, Miss Harriet Johnson and Russell Fuks were among the guests at a party in the Arthur Trowbridge home in Highland Park Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eckler and family and Miss Erma Gray visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Palmer in Clio Friday and went on to Flint Saturday. [The Eckler's left Miss Erma in Flint with her mother, Mrs. Jane Gray, and returned home, bringing their niece Miss Ruth Gray for the week end.]

Mrs. Harry Eckman spent Friday with Mrs. Richard Nobilet in Ferndale.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gilbert of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westbrook, Lincoln avenue, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Lossing, of Fourth Gate road, had the latter's father, T. G. Rakestraw of Farmington as their guest over the week end. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harold LeDeux of Farmington visited in the Lossing home.

Miss Iva Bensett of Holly, formerly a teacher in the John Grace School, was calling among friends here Sunday. Miss Bensett is nicely located at Waterford where she supervises three schools and 18 teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rodenhous were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Moody in Redford at a birthday party Saturday evening.

Mrs. Jennie Landis of Detroit is spending this week with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. August Miller.

The Sew-and-So Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Hugo Berns, Lincoln avenue.

Mrs. Walter Durham, Mrs. Herbert Parker, Mrs. William Eckler and Mrs. Howard Kennedy played bridge in the home of Mrs. Hobart Tower in Kenmoor Thursday when she was hostess to the Colonial Bridge Club. Mrs. Durham carried home the first prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Comstock of Wayne visited the forepart of the week with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harwood, Indian avenue.

Spelling champions in the John Grace School as determined in last Thursday's contest are: Erick Kallman, eighth grade; Margaret Hamill, seventh grade; Frances Tison, sixth grade; and Rhea Beauchamp, fifth grade. The school champion will be determined at another spelloff to be held Friday, April 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McKinney and family of Mt. Clemens, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Holbrook, Indian avenue, Sunday.

Friday and Saturday Mrs. William Ellis entertained her sister, Miss Anne Burrell of Detroit.

You May Think YOU "Can't Afford" INSURANCE

If so, you can afford it less than those who would be financially able to bear a heavy loss—but carry adequate insurance to protect themselves.

Insure Today — Tomorrow may be too late!

Edgar S. Pierce

"Everything in Insurance" Phone 9 Farmington

"SUPREME AUTHORITY"

WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY — THE MERRIAM WEBSTER

Because Hundreds of Supreme Court Judges concur in highest praise of the work of their Authority. The Presidents of leading Universities, Colleges, and Normal Schools give their hearty endorsement.

All States that have adopted a large dictionary as standard have selected Webster's New International.

The Schoolbooks of the Country adhere to the Merriam-Webster system of dicratical marks.

The Government Printing Office at Washington uses it as authority.

WRITE for a sample page of the New Words, specimens of letter and book Papers, FREE.

C. & C. Merriam Co. Springfield, Mass.

Get The Best!

SAVE MONEY ON A BRAND NEW Series "A" PONTIAC BIG SIX

When the New Series "B" Pontiac Big Six, was announced, our stock included a few of the preceding Series "A" Pontiac Big Sixes. These cars are brand new. They are up-to-date mechanically and in the styling of their Fisher bodies. They offer the performance advantages of 60-horsepower, six-cylinder engines. Yet they are now

SPECIALLY PRICED AT $670 AND UP f.o.b. Pontiac, Mich.

With these Pontiac Big Sixes you get full new car guarantees. You get a score of desirable engineering features including non-squeak internal four-wheel brakes. And, of course, you get all the dependability, long life and operating economy which every Pontiac provides.

Here is an opportunity to make a big saving without sacrificing quality, performance or style. Come in and inspect these cars while we have the body type of your choice.

INVESTIGATE These Wonderful "BUYS"

J. T. ALCOCK, Inc.

33431 Grand River Ave.

GENERAL GARAGE

Phone 9187