CLEVER STUNTS ARE PUT ON AT SPRING PICNIC

Classes Offer Entertaining Ideas At West Point Park Hall

The spring picnic held Saturday evening in West Point Park Hall was enjoyed by about 85. The classes vied in table decorations and stunts. The winning class after a chicken supper, entertained with song and recitations. Flowers growing in the "church yard", on their tables, represented the girls of the class. The miniature church was made up by Jean Gullen. The boys had a prize-ring and put on two boxing matches.

The Adult Bible class won a prize, having an exact replica of the West Point Park baseball diamond and team. Their stunt was a baseball solo by Harry Wolfe with a quartet encore.

The intermediate class had a dainty tea table and their stunt was a presentation of $5 from the class and teacher. They also won a prize.

The little folk table was a scene of the battle of the Potomac. The stunt was "the first flag." Little Barbara Whipple made a very sweet Betsy Ross and little Kenneth Wolfe was George Washington. They captured a prize.

Supt. Lloyd Gullen and the associate superintendent, Mrs. Fredericks had charge. It is understood this will become an annual affair.

Hope For Large Crowd At Meissner Benefit

A large crowd is hoped for by the school of Farmington High School, who, with the help of Mayor and Mrs. Arthur Lamm, will give a benefit dance Friday night, April 18, in Farmington Town Hall for August Meissner, who was hurt in football last fall, his legs having been paralyzed.

Music will be furnished by the Bateman Wood orchestra and supper will be served by the Eastern Star. Dance admission is $1.00 and supper charge is 25 cents. All are invited.
