West Point Park

The fourth annual Easter breakfast was served Sunday in the basement of West Point Park church by the ladies of the congregation with Mrs. Lillian Owen as chairman. About 30 attended. The program under the direction of Mrs. Earl Wolfe, was opened by a short address by George Gullen. E. Ault sang an anthem followed by a duet by George Gullen, Jr. and Elenore. Rev. Brown made a short speech. Later those who attended breakfast joined the congregation upstairs of the church where the program of Sunday School and church was combined. Barbara Whipple gave the greeting. The choir sang and Morris and Kenneth Wolfe sang a duet. The rest of the program was furnished by the junior girls, directed by their teacher, Mrs. Hann. The Rev. Brown began his sermon by reading "Easter Lilies." Mrs. Fredericks arranged the flowers. The chancel rail was banked with palms and Easter lilies. Other flowers sent by Lucian Gilbert added much. Pledges for yearly subscriptions were received and there was a meeting of the session. The church was well filled and there were a number of visitors.
