LAST RITES HELD FOR MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

The funeral of William Furman, aged 31, of South Lyon, brother of Judd Furman of Wixom, was held on Wednesday with burial in the Wixom Cemetery. Mr. Furman, who was very deaf, was walking to his home and as he crossed the Pere Marquette tracks a fast passenger train struck him, killing him instantly.

He was watching a train on the Grand Trunk tracks which crosses the other tracks near this point, and apparently did not notice the approaching locomotive until he was nearly across the track. His body was badly mangled.

The deceased is survived by his widow, his brother and one daughter, Mrs. James Calhoun of South Lyon.

Wonderful opportunities are offered in the Limer column of the Farmington Enterprise.
