SPEED KINGS OF WORLD IN DETROIT AUTO RACE

Speed kings of the world in their new two-men race cars are headed towards Detroit for the championship 100 mile A. A. sanctioned 100 mile race which is scheduled for the Michigan State fair track Sunday, June 8. Practically the entire crop of starters in the Indianapolis 500 miler has signed up for the Detroit race in which 14 cars are to start—all of them with a driver and a mechanic, this for the first time on speedway of any race track since 1922.

There is greater interest in the Detroit race than ever before and there is an international complexion to the speed battle for the only two foreign entrants at Indianapolis riding in an eight and a 16 cylinder Masterati Spec. are coming to the race in Detroit. Start is at 3 o'clock.
