TIMELY HEALTH TIPS

Health is a matter of small things. It's the little breaks in one's health armor that pave the way for the big troubles. Likewise, it's through attention to small details that serious illnesses may be avoided.

Several health tips, given by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association as illustrative of the minor ways in which health can be protected, are:

As hot weather comes on, it is advisable to eat more fresh fruits and vegetables, and less meat and eggs.

The diet, if underweight, should include plenty of bread, butter, cereals, sugars, fats, fresh fruits, milk and cream. Slow eating aids digestion.

Although curves are once again in vogue, health rules do not change in style. Weigh enough but don't get fat.

Air should be fresh but not raw. Breathing through the nose takes away the rawness, and also prevents entrance of foreign particles into the lungs.

For persistent coughs, headaches, insomnia, stomach troubles, etc., a doctor should be depended upon rather than patent medicines. Self-medication frequently has dire consequences.

TWO HAVE A NARROW ESCAPE FROM INJURY

Norman Zuenner and Glen Carey, both had miraculous escapes from injury, when the roadster driven by Zuenner tipped over on its side and slid into the ditch on the Commerce road Wednesday morning. The accident occurred when Zuenner attempted to turn his car to pass another car which was drawing to stop to wait for him to pass before turning into a driveway. As he put on his brakes to slow up a trifle his car evidently slid on its side, and the top of the car was damaged, but neither occupant was injured. As the car tipped over a flash of flame erupted from the battery's side watchers think the car was going to catch fire, but it did not.

POPE APPROVES PRAYER BLESSING COMMUNICATIONS

According to a late issue of "Telephony" the Pope has approved a form of prayer proposed by the Sacred Congregation of Rites for use in blessing telegraph and telephone stations and instruments. It reads thus:

"Oh, Lord, who ridest upon the wings of the wind, and alone work'st great wonders, grant us that, even as with the speed of lightning Thou sendest and receivest words to and from far distant places by the properties Thou hast created, we, learning wisdom from new inventions, may the more speedily be led to Thee. Amen."

CARS CRASH AT CROSS ROADS—NONE ARE HURT

White Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Blomfield, accompanied by several guests were driving on Walled Lake-Pontiac rd. to Pontiac Monday, a large sedan, driven by Peter Calvert, came toward Pontiac road on the Maple road at an unchecked high rate of speed and crashed into their car, partially wrecking it. Mr. Calvert accepted all blame for the accident saying he never saw the stop sign and did not hear Mrs. Blomfield sound her horn or see the car. Fortunately, no one was injured, though Mrs. Blomfield was thrown through the rear door glass.

The modern styles and materials in ladies shoes require consideration not possible in the old style cobbler shop. We have equipment and experience for repairing and patching lizard skin and other fancy shoes. We do a good job better.
