Methodist Church
Dr. H. Addis Lesson, Pastor

You will remember the hour you spend in quiet meditation and worship on Sunday morning all the week long. It is indeed the pause which refreshes. The Pastor will preach briefly on a timely and practical subject.

Our choir on the eve of its trip to Lansing on the first of August will give us something of their very best and this will be supplemented by a beautiful male quartette number. Will you not be among those who will delay their Sunday trip and be counted in the congregation at church?

The annual church meeting, which is called the "Last Quarterly Conference" in Methodist parlance, will convene on Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock and will take the form of an "At Home" church gathering with a beautiful chicken supper at actual cost. This supper is for all heads of departments, trustees, stewards, etc., and wives or husbands as the case may be.

COTTAGES THREATENED BY FIRE IN GARAGE

Fire threatened several cottages at Oakley Park on Friday morning about 10:30, when a garage back of the store of Harry Johnson caught fire.

The fire was believed to have been started by some children who were playing in the building.

The building itself was in a bad condition having been unused for several years and the damage to it by flames was slight.

The big danger was to the nearby homes. A stiff wind was blowing and considerable apprehension was felt for the safety of the other buildings.

The Walled Lake fire department was called and was driven to the scene by J. L. Taylor and C. M. Hunter.
