REQUESTS CITY TO SEEK LOWER PHONE RATE TO REDFORD

Commission Receives Communication Asking Action On Toll; Committee Is Appointed

A communication asking the City Commission to make an effort to obtain a reduced rate for telephone calls between Farmington and Redford, was received by the Commission last Thursday evening. The communication was from Joseph Himmelspach, Farmington business-man.

Mr. Himmelspach called attention to the fact that the cost of telephoning to Pontiac, a distance of 16 miles, is only 16 cents while the charge for calls to Redford, five miles away, is 20 cents. This is due to the fact that Redford exchange was made a part of the Detroit exchange some time ago.

Mayor Arthur Lamb appointed Commissioners Carl Goers and Leo Gildemeister a committee to interview the telephone company regarding the matter.

Walk fast and you catch misfortune, walk slowly and it catches you.—Russian proverb.

M. E. CHOIR GOING TO STATE MEET AT EAST LANSING

Farmington Methodist Church Singers In Annual State Competition

Friday morning is the time set for the annual singing contest in connection with the annual Michigan farmers' meeting at the Michigan State College. The Methodist choir will again compete for honors at this annual event which is growing more popular and interesting each year.

Last year the Farmington choir and the Walled Lake choir took first and second places respectively. An aspirant for honors this year is the choir from Milford, which is said to be a strong and well groomed organization.

The Farmington choir numbers 25 members this year. They leave at 8 a. m. and the contest begins at 10 o'clock. A number of interested people will also go to Lansing to hear the contest among whom will be Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cronman.

Under the leadership of Mr. Arthur Applin, the choir has been doing hard and thorough work in training and they expect to give a good account of themselves this year as they did last.

About A Stolen Car And A Bathing Suit

The telephone rang in the Farmington City police booth. Chief Lee Doyle answered and received a report of a car having been stolen from Phoenix Park, near Plymouth. It was an ordinary occurrence.

Half an hour later a motorist drove up to the Farmington police booth and stopped. A man leaped out, clad in a bathing suit. "Wait a minute," called Chief Doyle. "Don't you know you're not supposed to go around a town in a bathing suit?"

"Sure I do," replied the man in the bathing suit. "But how can I help it. I'm the guy that called you up and told you about my car being stolen. All my clothes were in it."

Other Play Days Are Coming

Summer time—play time for the average person—day by day is graduating into fall, when we will all settle down to work until the play season comes again.

How distinctly sensible it would be to set aside that portion of our earnings that can be comfortably spared, systematically and regularly—then when these days come when we want to relax and play again we will have a supply of money to make whatever we want to do easy.
