Chevrolet Produces Its Two Millionth '6'

Another automotive record topped Thursday when the Chevrolet Motor Company turned out its two millionth six cylinder car less than twenty months after the introduction of this type.

Just as Chevrolet led the world in four cylinder car production during the last two years that the company built that type, so now it assumes leadership in the six cylinder field by having built nearly five times as many sixes in twenty months as any other manufacturer in the history of the industry.

The two millionth six—a coach—rolled off the line here with Chevrolet and General Motors executives in attendance to witness the final assembly of the car, for which no further ceremonies were planned.

The brief time required by

Chevrolet to build two million sixes provides an index of the rapid strides made by this organization to the front rank of volume car builders. The company was organized late in 1911, and there were required nearly seventeen years to turn out five million of the old four cylinder cars, while two million sixes have been placed on the streets and highways of the world since January 1, 1929, or in, a total of only nineteen months and one week.

Total output of the Chevrolet Motor Company to date is approximately 7,200,000 cars.

A SMALL ONE

Jones was at an amusement park and he gave his small niece a nickel to buy a "hot dog." When she went over to the stand she was told that the price was 10 cents. "Oh," she replied, "Then I'll just have a puppy." Indianapolis News.
