FRANK DAY SMITH
for
CIRCUIT COURT
COMMISSIONER
A Hoover Appointee
Endorsed by Detroit Bar and Civic Searchlight

FRANK DAY SMITH, comes especially equipped for a most efficient performance of the varied duties of the office of Circuit Court Commissioner.
He is an acknowledged authority on building construction laws, the adjudication of which falls within the scope of this office. He has likewise published a treatise upon this subject, which has been of invaluable assistance to the Bench and Bar.
Because of his broad knowledge on these matters, President Hoover, whilst Secretary of Commerce appointed him one of a National Board of twelve to draft Uniform State Laws for the building industry, he being still an active member of this outstanding National Commission.
Whilst working on this Commission, he sponsored and secured the adoption of a clause in the Uniform Mechanic's Lien Act restricting the owner's liability to the contract price, as also giving labor prior rights in the adjudication of liens.
The technical knowledge of the varied duties of this important office, as also his splendid record as a trial lawyer before the courts for the past twenty years, led to his endorsement by the Detroit Bar Association; a splendid compliment to FRANK DAY SMITH, as the only candidate endorsed out of fifty aspirants for judgeship except those judges actually presiding.
As another Smith is on the ballot for this office, will you kindly remember the name FRANK DAY SMITH.

PERFORMANCE COUNTS!

During Mr. Spencer's administration as County Drain Commissioner more than 75 per cent of the drains constructed were built in Royal Oak City and Township—over $5,000,000 worth of sewers and drains having been built.

That the people in that territory have been more than satisfied with the manner in which Mr. Spencer has handled the office is best shown by the hundreds of endorsements which have come unsolicited from that section.

Below are listed the leading bankers and business men of Royal Oak and Ferndale who recommend the re-election of Mr. Spencer:
