MURRAY-HUNT

Mrs. Sarah Murray's home at West Farmington, was the scene of a pretty wedding which took place Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, when her daughter, Mary Arney Murray, was united in marriage to Lowell M. Hunt, Rev. J. W. Herring of the Bethany Baptist church of Pontiac, performed the ceremony.

The bridal party stood beneath a bank of autumn leaves and white and pink chrysanthemums in the parlor of Mrs. Murray's home. They marched through green and pink ribbons held by Charlotte Bertha Heliker and Francis Murray. The wedding march was played by Miss Lonella Howard.

The bride was dressed in cream tulle, embroidered with pink rosebuds over pink silk crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds and sweet peas. Her bridesmaid was Mary Ann Heliker, cousin of the bride, who was dressed in pink silk crepe and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Edwin Murray, brother of the bride acted as best man. Miss Mary Murray was born on the 13-Mile road, on the place known as the S. Gourley farm and lived in this section until she entered Pontiac High School where she graduated. She was a trained nurse and has been a member of the nurses' staff at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanitarium. Mr. Hunt is a landscape gardener.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will be at their new home at Scotch Lake after a short trip.

Political Advertisement SAVES PEOPLE MONEY

Albert W. Willson has been County Treasurer for two years. The office has been open on time and he has been on the job, and has a corps of experienced workers. Not one complaint has been made in more than a year for any discourteous act or word of any kind by any of his help.

He has saved to the taxpayers of this County thousands of dollars in taxes by re-arrangement of the office and refusing to move same. In the first eight months of this year he has saved over $77,000 from the budget allowed and by the time this year is complete he will be under the budget $23,000.

YOUNG PEOPLES' CLUB ORGANIZED; TO HAVE PARTY

Invitation Extended To Join New Farmington Organization; Meet November 2

The Young Peoples Club, an organization specially for young people, but no ages barred, has been organized in Farmington.

The first social function is a mysterious Halloween party and weenie roast. Everyone is asked to meet at the M. E. Church on Friday, October 31 at 7:00 p. m., where all will be furnished with transportation to unknown places. All are to wear old clothes.

The first meeting will be held in the Young Peoples Clubroom, at the M. E. Church on Sunday, November 2, at 6:00 p. m. The topic is, "What My Religion Means To Me," lead by Rev. Johnson and a number of the young folks. The Club's motto is, "Knowing Each Other Better"

Much planning has been done for this Club and those who come once are assured they will want to come again. There will be one hour for the meetings and half an hour for service and refreshments. Everyone is invited.
