5,775 DEER SHOT IN THE PENINSULA THIS YEAR

Conservation officers located at Mackinaw City and St. Ignace report the following game and predatory animals transported south up to December 1st; 5,775 deer; 11 coyotes; 9 timber wolves; 47 bear, and 8 bob-cats.

The deer brought across the Straits represent about one-third of the total kill, according to the Conservation Department, and of course this number does not include those taken out through Wisconsin, or those killed and kept within the upper peninsula and the twelve counties in the lower peninsula which are open to deer and bear hunting.

Michigan has 425,000 small game and deer hunters from 5,000 to 10,000 of these each year are "recruits."
