TAGGED DEER KILLED 17 MILES FROM TRAP

Lansing. — The Conservation Department has received the first return on tagged deer.

Last winter the game division started its first deer tagging operations. In the upper peninsula a buck and a doe were tagged. The buck acquired a metal tag in one ear when it ventured into a box trap set at Blaney in Schoolcraft County. This same buck was killed during the open season in Novembr, 17 miles from the place where it was tagged 11 months earlier. If the doe met a similar fate, no one has reported it.

The further tagging of other animals in the lower peninsula has failed to bring returns to date.
