FORMER RESIDENT PASSES AWAY AT HOME IN DETROIT

Mrs. Josephine Ryel To Be Buried Saturday, Was 68 Years Old

Mrs. Josephine Booth Ryel, 68 year old, former resident of Farmington, passed away Wednesday at her home, 838 Lathrup avenue, Detroit, after several months' illness.

Mrs. Ryel was born in Iowa. After the Civil War she with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Booth, came to Farmington, settling two miles west of Farmington on Grand River, on what is now known as the Blanchard farm. Here she spent her girlhood.

In 1884 she married William B. Ryel of North Farmington. He died four years ago. To them were born six children. Seventeen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Ryel moved to Detroit, where they have made their home since.

Surviving Mrs. Ryel are one daughter, Mrs. Mildred James, a son, Hugh A. Ryel and a grandson, Lloyd G. Ryel. Also a brother, P. G. Booth of New York City.

Funeral service will be held at the home Saturday at 2 p. m. with burial in Walled Lake Cemetery.

The combination of courage and intelligence is unbeatable.

Ballroom Is For Old Time Dancing Only

Residents of this section who like old-time dancing have an opportunity to enjoy it to the fullest, with the finest of music, and at a very small cost, through an advertisement in this newspaper.

The Campus Ballroom, at Livernois and Fenkel roads, the only ballroom in the United States built solely for old-time dancing, offers admission for only 25c with the coupon appearing in their advertisement on page 5, this being a fraction of the usual admission charge.

Music at the Campus Ballroom, one of the finest in Michigan, is furnished by the "Cornhuskers," famous all over the country and known particularly for their radio music.

No modern dances are held at the Campus Ballroom.

Ford Prices Reduced; Lower By $5 To $45

Large Crowd Attends Clarenceville P. T. A.

The Parent and Teachers Association of Clarenceville held its regular meeting on Monday night. A large crowd saw the fine program which was given.

Edwin Aldrich played a saxophone solo. "The Pirate Dante" was presented by five young ladies of the girl scouts troop, accompanied by Dorothy Clark at the piano and Lillian Meyers with her violin.

The Girl Scouts demonstrated the manner in which they give their Laws and Promises and the way they salute the flag. Following this, Misses Dorothy and Eleanor Clark played a piano duet. Mrs. E. Chase, principal, gave a splendid talk on "A Child's Marks at School."

At the close of the meeting President Hallock spoke on the next meeting to be held February 16. This will be the P. T. A.'s birthday meeting.

Officers in Portland, Ore., seized a batch of mash which contained soap, kerosene and lye among its ingredients. No barbed wire was found in it.
