Hoot Gibson Appears

In Person At Redford

Hoot Gibson, 'king of cowboys,' the popular screen and stage star who has thrilled millions in his various productions on the screen, will appear in person at the Redford Theatre next Friday and Saturday, February 6 and 7, at every performance. It is indeed a privilege, and the Publix-Kunsky Theatre believes that every movie lover in this community should attend the Redford Theatre either Friday or Saturday and do honor to so fine a showman.

This great achievement of procuring Hoot Gibson was made possible through the great friendship that prevails between this great star and an official of the Publix organization. Hoot will appear at the Redford Theatre every performance, Friday at 3:30; 5:30; 7:30 and 9:30 and Saturday at the same hours. Hoot Gibson will also have his six mule-sical rangers, the finest group of vocalists in the ranks of the cowboys.

There will be no advance in prices.

"The Cat Creeps" will be the feature picture along with Hoot Gibson. Also "Our Gang" com-

An ELECTRIC WAFFLE IRON

is ideal for preparing quick luncheon

HERE ARE SEVERAL DEPENDABLE MAKES PRICED

$8.95
from up

Waffles may be served in numerous ways on almost any occasion. For breakfast... cinnamon waffles, or waffles and bacon. For lunch... waffles with cheese rarebit, as a novel and appetizing dish. For informal supper parties... waffles with chicken a la king or creamed asparagus. And as the perfect light refreshment at any time... waffles with honey, preserves or marmalade.

Waffles prepared with an electric waffle iron are crisp and golden, and uniformly delicious. They may be made right at the table, without grease or smoke. Simply plug in the iron to the nearest electric outlet, and in two minutes the waffle is done. Among the dependable makes of waffle irons on display are the Westinghouse, Universal, Manning Borman and Hotpoint.
