Try To Cut Salary Of Township Officials

ed: "What is 10 per cent? It's a mere pittance. It should be 25 per cent."

Mr. Headerle said that "the difference between 10 and 25 per cent is so small that it could not be figured in the tax bill." Mr. McCracken then asked, "Can't we compromise on this thing and set the salaries now?" Supervisor Coe replied that the officials had planned to make a ten per cent reduction and Mr. McCracken asked if that was the limit. Supervisor Coe replied, "Yes."

"Average 20 Per Cent"

Mr. McCracken said that the resolutions averaged about a 20 per cent reduction, and Supervisor Coe replied that the work of the supervisor is greater than a year ago.

Allows Vote

After some discussion as to whether the resolutions were in order Supervisor Coe ruled that he would allow a vote on them to permit the people to express their view. The first resolution, to reduce the Supervisor's salary was defeated by a close vote, 64 to 58. The other resolutions were voted down verbally, each one by an increasing volume. The last, to reduce labor from 50 cents to 40 cents an hour brought shouts of disapproval, even before vote was called for.

Between 125 and 150 people crowded into a class room of the Bond school, most of them standing throughout the hour. A verbal exchange between two Township citizens, one of whom accused the other of having been "on the Town," i. e., on the welfare list, nearly brought about a fist encounter in the school corridor after the meeting. Numerous citizens were at hand, however, to intervene—if necessary. It is understood that the Township Board plans to make a 10 per cent reduction in all salaries, but not in wages paid to labor, at a meeting in the near future.

THANK YOU!

I wish to thank my friends for the support given me at the polls last Monday and shall try to merit your confidence.

SAYS ATTACK ON CRIME - PROBLEM MUST REACH HOME

Speaker Declares Hope Of Checking Crime Wave Rests With Youth

That the only hope this country may have of controlling and reducing crime consists in work that may be done among the youth and in the homes of the land, was the declaration of Archie G. Leonard, Deputy County Commissioner of Schools, speaking at the Farmington Exchange Club Wednesday noon.

Mr. Leonard said that a large part of his work involves enforcement of the compulsory school law, and that his experiences in that field have proved to him that enforcement of this law alone, or any other partial effort, cannot hope to prevent crime from increasing. "We must remember," said Mr. Leonard, "that the average of criminals in this country is 20 years. When a man has been arrested, imprisoned, pardoned, paroled, re-arrested and imprisoned again, as many as 50 times, we cannot hold much hope of reforming him. Unless the church improves and the school improves, and most important of all, the home conditions, our crime situation cannot become much better. The pages of history show that every dynasty, every civilization has been based upon the home, and when that dynasty or that civilization ceases to regard the home as fundamental, it begins to commit suicide."

Mr. Leonard said that although he felt the people of Michigan had made a mistake Monday in rejecting the capital punishment amendment, that nevertheless the crime problem could not be solved by passing a capital punishment law, or enforcing a school attendance law.

The council of Exchange Clubs in the Metropolitan area will meet at Farmington on May 7, it was announced.

John Fitzpatrick was elected treasurer of the Club to succeed Hinman Nichols, resigned.

The Club voted to add a member of the senior class of Farmington High School to go to Washington by making a loan of $20.00.

A 4% Savings Account in a Strong Bank . . .

The Best Investment on Earth!

Happy is the family circle shielded by a comfortable savings account. Business conditions, the securities market, domestic or foreign disturbances—none of these holds worry for the wise family head who has prepared for such inevitable swings in the economic pendulum.

A savings account moves only one way in value: upward—through the semi-annual addition of interest. "Bears" don't "raid" it. It doesn't "sell off" from par. It is the one investment on which you can always depend.

For the average person—over a period of time—a 4% savings account is, we repeat, the best investment on earth!
