

The Latch-Key

Published by the Journalism Class of Farmington High School

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN
On Tuesday evening of this week the Junior class of 1931 gave a party in honor of the seniors, who leave Saturday for their annual visit to Washington. Ping pong was played, followed by dancing. The party was held in the gym. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

GUM CHEWING
What makes gum chewing so popular in school? Why is worn out gum discarded every place except where it should be? Are students in need of exercising their jaws or do they chew gum to satisfy their desire for something to eat during school? Many people who dislike this habit think that it is done intentionally to annoy them.

It is true that many pupils do try to bother their teachers by chewing gum in class and how disappointed they are if their teachers do not see them and order them to throw the gum into the waste basket. Some pupils claim that to see another person chewing gum makes onlookers hungry. So out of kindness to others they should give up that great pleasure. One of the worst habits that gum chews have is parking their gum in such queer places. Why do they shun the waste basket and throw their gum on the floors, in the drinking fountain, under desks? There is probably not a desk in the school building that has not had a "wad" or "cud" of gum plastered under it some time or other.

No matter how much is said or done in regard to gum chewing in school this habit continues to be popular. If it is always going to be a habit among pupils it ought to be improved.

With all the progress in education students learn to discard their gum in the waste basket or other suitable places.

WHERE THE FACULTY WILL SPEND THEIR VACATION
Miss Chetle will spend her vacation at her home in Lansing. Mr. and Mrs. Dalrymple will remain in Farmington. Mr. Burns and Mrs. Harrison will accompany the Senior class on their pilgrimage to Washington, D. C., Virginia and West Virginia.

Miss Piercy will visit Cheboygan and other northern parts. Mr. Rohrer will spend part of his vacation at his home at Grass Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Shadley will spend their vacation at Ewart, Mich. Mr. Hall will go to Lake City for the holidays.

Mr. Eaton informs the reporter that he will remain at his home in Redford changing pistons.

SPORTS
Try outs are being held this week to determine the champion, boy and girl, ping pong players. The interest starts with the ninth grade and extends through the twelfth grade.

The final ping pong match was played on the night of the annual carnival, April 9th, held in the High School auditorium.

Baseball
The F. H. S. baseball team will play its first game with St. Mary's Orchard Lake, April 17. The team has been compelled to practice in the gym on account of the weather but hope to put in two full weeks of outdoor practice before the contest. The team only lost three regulars last year and prospects for a successful season are bright.

GRADE NEWS
The first grade has just completed a safety project. They also enjoyed a visit from the Easter bunny. The second grade has started working on the birds for their nature study. Both second and third grades had Easter parties. The fourth grade enjoyed their trip to the Detroit Art Museum very much and also the short visit at the Fisher building at the WJR radio station. The group was accompanied by their teachers, Miss Vap Dyne and Mrs. Loomis.

The sixth grade went through the Ford plant at Dearborn, last Wednesday.

The seventh graders have a very interesting corner in their room. It has in it six rabbits. This was started by Eleanor Chany and followed by other pupils. The eighth grade English class is studying "The Lady of the Lake." Jack Glassford is a new student in the eighth grade.

TOKES
Elsie: "Why do you call your car, Paul Rivers?" Harold: "Because of the midnight ride."

MUSIC CONTEST NOT FAR AWAY
The State contest is not far away and Mrs. Loomis and Mr. Eaton have both spent many hours in preparing for it. The Girls' Glee club will sing "River River" and "Homing."

The chorus has prepared the "Spring Song" and "In the Delectable Pleasant Groves." The two numbers that the band have prepared are, "Festival Overture" and "Marche Royal." The contest will be held at Ypsilanti the 24th and 25th of April, arrangements being made for everyone to stay both days of the contest.

CARNIVAL
The annual Mardi Gras Carnival sponsored by the Student Council was held Thursday night from 7:30 to 12:00.

The amusement consisted of confetti, French restaurant, beauty parlor, fish pond, hot dogs, Rudy Vaale impersonation, ping pong matches, French play and dancing.

The Hi-Y staged a big surprise which had everyone guessing until the last minute. The High School king and queen were chosen during the Carnival.

The English classes ballot on the enactment of death penalty bill showed a small majority in favor of its passage.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT
Only 372 more days before the Juniors leave for Washington. The Sophomores are publishing the Latch-Key this week. The Washington trip is costing less per capita than ever before. The Juniors have taken over the bandstand. George Rogers has not missed a day of school for six weeks. Mr. Burns is wearing glasses. Capital punishment is being suffered by the Sophomore class while they are racking their brains for conclusions. Ping pong is still an important event among the students and teachers. The Seniors leave tomorrow for Washington.

LOST
Leather bound copy of Tennyson's poems.

FOUND
Girls' ring, large black set. Girls' ring, large white set.

SENIOR NEWS
