FORD BRAKES ARE UNUSUALLY EFFECTIVE

Reliability and safety due to simple design and careful construction

ONE OF the first things you will notice when you drive the Ford is the quick, effective action of its four-wheel brakes.

They are unusually safe and reliable because they are mechanical, internal expanding, with all braking surfaces fully enclosed. This prevents mud, water, sand, etc., from getting between the band and drum and interfering with brake action.

Other outstanding features of the Ford are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, torque-tube drive, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, Rustless Steel, reliability, economy, and long life.

You save when you buy the Ford and you save every mile you drive.

Bold Theft Occurs

In Heart of Town

"Bula Bula" college.

"The Whole Show"

The "Flappers" obeyed Thursday evening, but when the show was over, they promptly held an "indignation meeting". It was perhaps fitting that foremost among the indignant ones was a "Conceited Junior", Carl Hoyle, so "his said, told his 'gang' that nobody needed to go three years to college to know that the Flappers were the whole show—or words to that effect. The others agreed unanimously.

What busy hours were spent planning and plotting Friday is known only to the "Flappers" themselves. But it is whispered that among the "Conceited Junior's" most active and eager assistants was none other than, strangely enough, the last person on the "campus" and only would suspect—the "Stodious Girl" (Mr. Nichols will probably attempt to deny this in next week's issue, but all space has been taken.)

"Lights His Flag"

Thus we come to Friday evening. Again the "Flapper Chorus" appeared and "strutted their stuff". Again the hall rocked as "Hard-Hearted Hannah" struck a match on "her" shoe—while the audience wondered if Marie Dressler would ever have taken the leading part in that famous movie, "Min and Bill". Had she seen this show first. Beyond doubt she would have gladly, as a self-sacrificing artist who knew her superior when she saw him, given the part over to A. L. Ross.

The final curtain—The ensemble sings their last song—the "Flappers" kneel docilely "down front". The curtain comes together and the director sighs with relief. But wait! The curtain-puller has been bribed, and so he the pianist. The foils roll back again, the "Flappers" arise in their might, their indignation, and most of them in their wives' clothes—and they begin a lusty song. Nothing of "BulaBula" or "Betty Co-ed". No, a real he-man, chesty song—"Show Me the Way To Go Home". The director and the others on the stage gaze in wonder as "Conceited Junior" cavorts in front, leading "her" "Chorus" in running away with the show.

It was worth 50 cents of any man's money any time—depression or not!
