LONG TELEPHONE CALL HELPS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

When a St. Louis woman recently celebrated her ninety-fifth birthday, she received more than twenty-five callers and was presented with a large number of gifts, including an old-fashioned corsage by the Daughters of the American Revolution. But the happiest moment of the day was when her son called her by telephone from Chariton, Ia.

Arabia and Findland are the only countries, besides the United States, having law absolutely prohibiting the manufacture and sale of alcholic liquors.
