

GC Church Will Host Players

The Agape Players, a Christian youth group from Miami, will present a program of music and drama at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 24, in the First Baptist Church of Garden City, Henry Ruff and Marquette.

Members of the local church are hosting the 23 young people who make up the group for the few days they are visiting in this area.

They are on a 16-state tour, presenting a dramatic appeal to Christian unity based on the theme "I Wonder," by Ronald Wells of Spartanburg, S.C. The players organized in 1969 to present a gospel message through music and drama. They traveled at first in an old school bus, and later sold doughnuts to raise funds for the Aerocraft that now is their home on wheels.

The public is invited to their performance.

Prayer Guild To Plan For 'Prayer Week'

Father Peyton's Family Prayer Guild will meet Sunday, Oct. 24, to finalize plans for Father Peyton's visit for Detroit's "Family Prayer Week" from Nov. 15 to 21. The meeting will be held in Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Woodward and the Edsel Ford Freeway, Detroit.

BP. GUMBLETON

Gumbleton Discusses Abortion

Bishop Thomas J. Gumbleton, auxiliary bishop and vicar general of the Detroit Archdiocese, will speak on abortion at 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 28, in St. Agatha Catholic Church, Pembroke and Beech Dwy, Redford Township.

His talk, part of the St. Agatha Cultural Forum series, is titled "What Exchange Would You Give for a Life?" The public is invited and a donation of $1 is asked. Bishop Gumbleton is founding director of the Detroit Archdiocese Poverty Program. He also is vicar for parishes and, in that capacity, organizer of the vicariates in the archdiocese. An avid sports fan, he plays on the Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Woodward and the Edsel Ford Freeway, Detroit.

St. Gerald's Thursday Series Begins Nov. 4

"Urban Crisis" and "Child Development" are just two of a wide variety of topics which will be covered this fall and winter in the First Thursday Series of lectures sponsored by the adult education department of St. Gerald Catholic Church, Farmington. Meetings will be held the first Thursday of each month in the church, 21300 Farmington Road, beginning at 8 p.m. Questions and answer sessions and small group discussions will follow each lecture.

REGISTRATIONS MUST be made at the church by Oct. 26. There is a charge of $1 per person for the series. Charge for individual sessions will be $2. High school and college students will be charged half price.

The program will get under way with a talk on "Law and Order," by Thomas G. Plunkett, prosecuting attorney of Oakland County. The emphasis will be on what the average citizen can do to maintain law and order in his community. Judge Michael J. Hand, 47th District Court, will also be a speaker.

Dr. John B. Forsyth, director of missions, Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches, will show a short film and discuss the "Theology of Politics" on Dec. 2.

The "Urban Crisis" will be discussed by Richard B. NANCY BOURDEAU, will present a sacred concert in Redford Baptist Church, 25295 Grand River, Redford Township, Sunday evening, Oct. 24, at 8 p.m. Bourdeau has sung for television, radio, conventions, conferences and crusades. Some of her more popular numbers have been recorded by Otis Skilling on Tempo Records. Mrs. Bourdeau, her husband and children make their home in Flint and Anna Maria Island, Fla.

Arrangements for the series are being looked after by Kan and Rosemary Doyle, 31648 Farmington, Livonia, and Bill and Cathy Bechtel, of Farmington.

CHURCH

GENE JORDAN, marionist from Quito,

Equador, will present a concert at 7 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 24, in Ward United Presbyterian Church, Farmington Road and Six Mile, Livonia. Jordan, who plays regularly on radio station HCJB in Quito, is a composer and arranger as well as artist and has given concerts all over the world. He also conducts the symphony orchestra in Quito.

Evangelical Director To Speak

The Rev. Gordon Bacon, regional director of the National Association of Evangelicals, will be guest speaker Sunday, Oct. 24, in the Forest Hills Missionary Church, 30623 West 12 Mile, Farmington.

He will be on hand for the 9:45 and 10:55 a.m. and the 7 p.m. services at the church. During each of these services, music will be led by Ken Wittington, former night club and concert violinist.

Both are visiting the Forest Hills church as part of its "Families for Christ" management campaign. The public is invited.

The N.E.A., which Rev. Bacon heads, is the United States portion of the World Evangelical Fellowship, which seeks through its member bodies to present the evangelical faith and unite evangelical organizations, institutions and individuals in fellowship.

The clergyman formerly was a pastor and district superintendent in the Missionary Church.

REV. GORDON BACON

Kids To Get UN Flags

The Birmingham Temple, 26511 W. 12 Mile, Farmington, will celebrate United Nations Day with a family service Sunday evening, Oct. 24. Borrowing from the marching ceremony of the Jewish festival of Simhat Torah, the United Nations Day service will feature a flag procession. Children will be given small UN flags and will march around the temple to the music of brotherhood songs.

Members of the temple hope to make this an annual event, and add a new religious holiday to their calendar. The pioneer temple of Jewish Humanism, the temple has sought to integrate a humanistic philosophy of life with Jewish culture. It strives to reinterpret traditional Jewish festivals and supplement them with new humanistic holidays.
