

Try These Tricks To Treat

By ELLY
In the spirit of ghosts, goblins, tricks and treats, treat your youngsters to a party where the tables of eating are turned, and trick them with a most unusual party set-up.
Schedule your party for a late afternoon or early evening after trick-or-treating, so that young guests arrive in their costumes - and in the spirit. Let the fun begin at the front door, with a sign over the doorbell directing them to another entrance (a basement window would be perfect) and instruct them to knock three times before entering.
Have a friend help them in, blindfold them, and lead them in a round-about-way to the witches' den or party room.
During the winding walk, establish a spooky atmosphere with a series of fine strings simulating cobwebs hanging from the ceiling. Then, have a few more party helpers add eerie calls in the background.

A HAND shake along the way with the witches' bony hand is a must (five sticks in a glove seem to do the best job here.)

Once in the dimly lit witches' den, where jack-o-lanterns are flickering smiles, the mood is set and blindfolds can be removed.

When the party is assembled, bring on the witches' brew, a delightfully rich pot of smooth, milk chocolate fondue, kept warm in a fondue pot, into which guests may dip a variety of dunkables—bite size pieces of angel food or pound cake, doughnuts and fresh fruit.

And instead of dunking for apples, dunk apples into chocolate, an unusual treat for many a young goblin.

CHOCOLATE SAUCE
1 jumbo pkg. or two regular pkg. semi-sweet chocolate pieces

1/3 c. butter or margarine
1/3 c. milk
1/4 c. light corn syrup
1 t. vanilla

Melt chocolate and butter in top of double boiler. Stir in milk, corn syrup and vanilla; stir until smooth. At serving time, heat in a fondue pot over low flame. Spear pieces of cake, doughnuts or fruit on fondue forks and dunk in sauce.

RASPBERRY SAUCE
1 c. raspberry jam
1 c. raspberry jelly
1/4 c. orange juice
1 t. grated orange rind

Mix together all ingredients in a small fondue pot, over medium flame. Spear dunkables on fondue forks and dunk in sauce. Yields 2 1/2 cups.

YOUR TRICK or treaters may make a donation to the United Nation Children Fund simply by saving labels. The joint redemption plan called "The Tree of Life" redeems wrappers and labels to cash for UNICEF.

The following products are involved: Birds Eye vegetables, front panel; Clark gum, pack wrappers; Hunts Snack Pack, back panel; Kool-Aid, empty package; Peter Paul candies, any wrapper; Pals vitamins, jelly box; and Welch's jams and jellies, any labels.

ARTICHOKEs WITH WHIPPED BACON BUTTER
4 artichokes, prepared as directed
1/2 cup butter, softened
1/2 cup heavy cream
1/4 teaspoon onion powder
1/4 teaspoon each: dry mustard, thyme
4 slices bacon, cooked crisp and crumbled
Paprika
Cream butter until light and fluffy; gradually beat in cream. Stir in onion powder, mustard, thyme and bacon. Sprinkle with paprika. Serve as dip with hot artichokes. Four servings.
