

Girl Scout Miss Wilson Wed Leaders In Mt. Pleasant Will Meet

A conference on spiritually-oriented programs will be among the highlights of the annual leaders institute sponsored by the Archdiocesan Committee for Girl Scouts Oct. 29, in the Gabriel Richard Building, Washington Boulevard and Michigan Avenue, Detroit.

Registration will be open at 9:15. Other conferences in the morning will discuss the Marian Medal project, parish representatives, rededication and the investiture ceremony.

Presentation of St. Anne awards will follow a noon luncheon.

Registration fee is $2 per person. They should be made by calling the Catholic Youth Organization office, 305 Michigan Avenue.

This meeting of Catholic leaders is designed for a sharing of ideas and to acquaint them with the function and purpose of the Archdiocesan Committee.

MRS. PAUL ELLIOTT (Suzanne Wilson)

Suzanne M. Wilson became the bride of Paul Elliott in an evening wedding Aug. 29 in the First Presbyterian Church of Mt. Pleasant.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson of Livonia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Elliott of Mt. Pleasant.

The Rev. Malcolm Brown officiated.

Off-white chiffon fashioned the bride's gown. Antique lace trimmed the bodice and cuffs and a matching lace cap held her shoulder-length veil. She carried white phalaenopsis orchids, anemones and ivy.

MARSHA WILSON, her sister's maid of honor, wore a lace-trimmed apricot chiffon gown and an orange Victorian cap and carried a basket of varied flowers with orange predominating.

Two other sisters, Jodie and Christine, were bridesmaids. Their gowns also were apricot chiffon, and with them they wore apricot headpieces and carried baskets of yellow and bronze flowers.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S attendants and the two fathers wore brown tuxedos with flared pants and yellow ruffled shirts.

Butch Schoen of Big Rapids was best man, and the ushers were Albert Bowerman of Germany, Steve Johnston of Shepherd, Mich., Bill Gruss of Mt. Pleasant and Joe Wilson, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Wilson wore a pale pink shantung coat and dress ensemble, and Mrs. Elliott was in light blue polyester.

Among the 200 guests at the Holiday Inn dinner dance reception were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Clara Snyder and Mrs. Anna Wilson, both of Flint.

The couple went to Jamaica for their honeymoon and will live in Mt. Pleasant, where both are employed. The new Mrs. Elliott is a graduate of Central Michigan University and her husband graduated from Northwood Institute.

MRS. JAMES JOSEPH MADDIX (Patricia Lynn Ramin)

Kenwood Church Setting For Rites

Kenwood Church of Christ in Livonia was the setting for the Aug. 28 wedding of Patricia Lynn Ramin and James Joseph Maddix.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Ramin of Blue Skies Drive, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Maddix of Mason, Mich.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S brother, Midshipman Chris L. Maddix, was his best man, and the groomsmen was another brother, David G. Maddix. Ushers Edward Mullin and James Hayford of Mason and David Shewee, William Carew and William Flynn of Lansing, Dennis Ramin, the bride's brother, was ringbearer.

Among guests at the wedding and church reception was the bride's brother, Airman Mike Ramin, who came home from Texas for the occasion.

The couple honeymooned at Niagara Falls and will live in Saginaw.

They have two sons, William G. Stange of Ypsilanti and George R. Stange of Southgate. There are seven grandchildren.

Application forms can be obtained from Norene Rupp, CPS, 17200 Southfield, Allen Park, 48101.

GC Residents Have 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Stange, residents of Garden City since 1954, celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday, Oct. 27, with a dinner in Farmington.

Stange and his wife, the former Elsie Scheitlerline, were married Oct. 27, 1921, in St. Matthew Evangelical and Reformed Church, Detroit.

They lived in Detroit and East Detroit before moving to Garden City. Stange retired from the American Blower Corp. 10 years ago, after more than 50 years of service.

He was an active adult leader in Boy Scouts for about 10 years. He is also a charter member and past commander of Harold Todd Post No. 140 of the American Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. Stange have done some traveling, but spend most of their time maintaining their yard and flower garden. Mrs. Stange also enjoys sewing and crocheting.

They have two sons, William G. Stange of Ypsilanti and George R. Stange of Southgate. There are seven grandchildren.

The Rev. Lee Baltzer officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown with lace trim on the front panels, the high Victorian collar and the cuffs.

She carried a cascade of red sweetheart roses, baby's breath and daisies.

CINDY RAMIN, wearing a light green dotted swiss dress and carrying a basket of green daisies, was maid of honor. Another sister, Linda Ramin, was similarly dressed in blue for her duties as bridesmaid.

Greeting the guests and lighting the candles before the ceremony were Kitty Ramin, also the bride's sister, in yellow dotted swiss gown, and Rebecca Maddix, sister of the bridegroom, in orange. All the attendants' dresses were made by the bride's mother.

Among guests at the wedding and church reception was the bride's brother, Airman Mike Ramin, who came home from Texas for the occasion.

The couple honeymooned at Niagara Falls and will live in Saginaw.

Gains Favor

The screened porch is reported gaining favor in Florida, California and New Jersey, despite a rise in air conditioning.
