Farmington's One Great Pride To The Editor:

If there is one thing Farmington can be proud of it's our school Band. No matter what the occasion, they are equal to it, that they have talent is unquestionable, they seem to put every ounce of energy into their playing and make no work of it, every move, every note is like clock-work.

Words fail to express the praise we, as a community should extend to Mr. Eaton, their leader for the wonderful work he has accomplished in the short time he has been training our Boys and Girls as a Band, and I will say, No sweeter strains ever came over the Radio than those rendered by our own Home School Band.

A Friend.

Begin Great Effort For Successful Fair

Detroit, Mich.—Organization of important sub-committees to handle the promotional details of the Michigan State Fair and Exposition here September 4 to 10, has opened the Fair Management's campaign to make the forthcoming exposition "bigger and better" in face of current conditions.

Oscar Kelsey, former resident of Wixom is the only surviving G. A. R. man of this vicinity: He is a pioneer of this vicinity and attended everyone of the Wallled Lake Home Comings. He is now residing in Detroit.

Al Baker, 79 years old, of Sylvan Lake died at his home Thursday May 26. Mr. Baker was a pioneer of Wallled Lake and lived in the village many years. He was a brother of the late Mrs. Charles Pratt and Edward Baker. He is survived by his widow, Carrie Willis Baker and a son Frank H. Stone.
