Attendants Wear Rainbow Colors

Eight attendants in bright-colored chiffon dresses preceded Laura Thompson down the aisle when she became the bride of Paul Kuuttilla in a candlelight ceremony Sept. 11 in Grace Lutheran Church, Redford Township.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson of Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kuuttilla, Kaleva, Mich., are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. V. Frederick Halboth officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

ESCORTED to the altar by her father, the bride wore an Italian silk gown with daisy-pattern venise lace fashioning and bodice and edging the chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from lace tiara, and she carried white roses, mums and baby's breath.

Christine Parske, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor and wore bright pink. Matron of honor Susan Holtz was in orange.

The bridesmaids were Nancy Davidson and Debbie Michelson, in peacock blue, Linda Caley in orange, and Patt Thompson and Dale Abernathy in American beauty.

Jo Ann Thompson, sister of the bride, wore moss green.

All carried nosegays of yellow carnations tied with ribbons that matched their gowns.

KARA KUUTTILA, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a yellow dotted swiss dress and carried a basket of yellow carnations. The ring-bearer was Steven Hurlin, the bride's cousin.

The bridegroom's attendants, all in Edwardian tuxedos, were Richard Kuuttilla, his brother, as best man, and Howard Cook, Larry Wranks, Dan Jupp, John Johnson, William Sigan and Ed Thompson, brother of the bride, as ushers.

The bride's mother wore mint green chiffon and Mrs. Kuuttilla wore an aqua two-piece dress.

Joan Baldwin Wed To Rodney Rounke

The Episcopal Church of the Holy Spirit in Westland was the setting for the recent marriage of Joan Marguerite Baldwin and Rodney A. Rounke.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baldwin of Minton Avenue, Livonia, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Helen Rounke of Westland and Norbert Rounke of Garden City.

The Rev. Jack Savage officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE'S gown was white crepe with sheer sleeves and a round neckline. Daisies and baby's breath fashioned the headpiece that held her sheer veil, and the same flowers were combined with sonora roses and ivy in her bouquet.

Attendants for the couple were Judy Poag of Livonia, who wore a peach chiffon over taffeta gown and flower headpiece, and Steve Watkins of Livonia.

The bride's mother wore an aqua dress and the bridegroom's mother was in pale green.

SHERWOOD INN was the scene of the reception for 75 guests.

The couple is living in Livonia. The new Mrs. Rounke is continuing her studies at Eastern Michigan University, and her husband is employed by the U.S. Postal Service.

Mormon Temple Is Setting For Vows

Barbara Jean Zoller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Zoller of Westland, became the bride of Thomas William Price in a recent ceremony in the Logan Mormon Temple in Logan, Utah.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Price of Malita, Idaho. Temple President Elvie W. Heaton officiated for the ceremony, and a reception and wedding dance were held later in Malita.

THE BRIDE'S empire gown had lace trim on the bodice and lace cuffs. A matching lace headpiece held her chapel-length veil, and her flowers were stephanotis, baby's breath and yellow sweetheart roses.

Randi Greene of San Francisco was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Joyce Luster of Grand Junction, Colo., Sue Greene of San Francisco and Camille Jones of Wellsville, Utah.

All wore empire gowns of pale yellow dotted swiss and carried single yellow roses.

ROBERT E. ZOLLER and Robert C. Price were attendants for the bridegroom.

Attending the wedding with the bride's parents were her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Owen, and her aunt, Irma Gartzke, all of Iowa.

The couple honeymooned in Salt Lake City and are living in Provo, Utah.

The new Mrs. Price is a graduate of Brigham Young University, with a degree in child development and family relations. Her husband is a student in the Brigham Young college of nursing.

Women's Club Meets Nov. 9

Nativity scenes from around the world will be presented at the Nov. 9 luncheon of the Christian Women's Club of Northwest Detroit. The luncheon will begin in the Birmingham Community House at 12:30 p.m.

Wallace Bronner will be the speaker and will show films. Christmas music will be provided by the Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Welch.

Tickets may be reserved by calling Mrs. F. Flier Berger, 3861 Peabody, Bloomfield Hills, or Mrs. Jack French, 12767 Nadine, Huntington Woods. Arrangements may also be made for child care.

Alumnae Meet

The Detroit North Suburban Alumnae Association of Alpha Delta Pi will hold a "creative project night" on Thursday, Nov. 4, at 8, in the home of Mrs. Jack Schmauck, 3092 Foxgrove, Farmington.

There will be a demonstration of different decorations for the holidays and a work period in which members may try out their talents. All alumnae are urged to attend.

special needs of women and girls with low incomes, including prisoners and the maximum utilization of volunteers.

MRS. ROSINA RAYMOND, Schoolcraft College teacher and president of the Livonia BPW, called the Saturday clinic an opportunity for women to fulfill their "unspoken need for new interests, new challenges, new growth."

"It's never too late to begin," she said. "Come to the personal development clinic and be shown."

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cichonski of Ingram Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Christine Joan, to Craig A. McGahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McGahan of Woodring Avenue, Livonia. A Nov. 12 wedding is planned.
