Candlelight Rites Unite Buehners

Stephanie Jane McCombs became the bride of Raymond Joseph Buehner in a candlelight ceremony Sept. 11 in the Merriman Road Baptist Church, Garden City.

The bridegroom's brother, the Rev. John Buehner, assisted the Rev. Raymond Babb, pastor of the church, in performing the rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McCombs of John Hawk Street, Garden City. Mr. and Mrs. John Buehner of Robert Drive, Livonia, are the bridegroom's parents.

LACE FASHIONED the bride's long-sleeved traditional gown, and a crown held her bouffant veil.

Her attendants were Louise Sweeney, her aunt, as maid of honor, Nancy McCombs, her sister, and Lora Minnaselle as bridesmaids, and Bonnie Helton as flower girl.

They were lavender tulle over taffeta dresses and carried baskets of multi-colored daisies.

Peter Rala was best man and the groomsmen were William McCombs Jr., brother of the bride, and Tony Diptero.

Mrs. McCombs wore a pink crepe dress and Mrs. Buehner chose blue linen.

THE NEWLYWEDS, both graduates of Eastern Michigan University, plan to live in California.

The new Mrs. Buehner, also a graduate of Garden City West High School and Schoolcraft College, has a degree in psychology and has done substitute teaching in Belleville. She also has been active in missionary work.

Her husband's degree is in business and he has managed an Ann Arbor firm.

Barbara Kiscaden Wed In California

In an afternoon ceremony in the Santa Cruz mountains of California on Oct. 9, Barbara Jean Kiscaden and Roy Eugene Claassen were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Kiscaden of Bainbridge Avenue, Livonia. Edgar J. Claassen of Sunriver, Ore., and Mrs. Vito LaTorre of Boulder Creek, Calif., are the bridegroom's parents.

The double-ring ceremony, officiated by Dr. Carroll Roberts, took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vito LaTorre.

FOR HER "something old," the bride wore an antique Scottish opal ring given to her by the bridegroom's family.

Given in marriage by her father, she wore an empire ivory chiffon gown with antique lace trim. Her shoulder-length illusion veil was scattered with seed pearls, and she carried white roses, carnations and baby's breath.

Barbara Jane Koester, the bride's sorority sister from Champaign, Ill., flew to California to be her only attendant. She wore an empire gown of lavender floral print and carried white carnations with pink daisies, roses and baby's breath.

Paul Polanski of Westland, also flew west to be best man for the bridegroom.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore a turquoise gown and the bridegroom's mother was in beige. A wedding reception at the LaTorre home followed the ceremony.

After a California honeymoon, the newlyweds will live at Elkhorn Ranch, Watsonville, Calif. The bridegroom is establishing the firm of Monterey Mushrooms, Inc., of Watsonville.

The new Mrs. Claassen has completed three years at the University of Michigan and plans to resume her studies in California.

MRS. HAROLD R. WAINWRIGHT
(Gloria G. Depew)

Wainwright-Depew Vows Are Spoken

Gloria G. Depew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Depew of Garden City, became the bride of Harold R. Wainwright in a recent ceremony in Christus Victor

Lutheran Church in Dearborn Heights.

The bridegroom is the son of Morris B. Wainwright of Saginaw and Mrs. James Gamble of Nappanee, Ind.

The Rev. Armin Heidmann officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

THE BRIDE wore a silk organza gown with chantilly lace trimming the bodice and bishop sleeves and edging the chapel train. Her bouffant fingertip veil also was lace-trimmed, and she carried a cascade of miniature carnations.

Carol Depew, as her sister's maid of honor, wore an apricot gown and carried a cascade of apricot and white carnations.

Wearing turquoise chiffon gowns and carrying turquoise and white carnations were bridesmaids Toni Zajackowski and Marie Para, both of Garden City.

Clements Smart of Pontiac was best man, and the ushers were Douglas Blake of Dearborn and Leonard Peterson of Westland, uncle of the bride. The bride's brother, Bill Depew, was junior usher, and her small niece and nephew, Kandace and Craig Peterson, were flower girl and ring bearer.

After a Roma Hall reception, the couple left for a Niagara Falls honeymoon. They are living in Plymouth.

BARBARA DIPIAZZA

Mr. and Mrs. Charles DiPiazza of Blue Skies Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lynn, to Robert Gordon Hind, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hind Sr. of Northgate Avenue, Westland. The bride-elect is a 1971 graduate of Churchill High School. Her fiancé graduated in 1968 from Wayne Memorial High School and is serving in the U.S. Navy. They plan to marry Jan. 8.
