Arm Chair Shoppers Are Skillful Shoppers!

Almost every purchase you make represents a choice between three or four or forty good possibilities. But no good housekeeper today spends all her spare time on the go; comparing qualities, estimating values.

Instead, to get the most for the money she spends, she does much of her shopping at home, with her favorite newspaper. She finds in the advertising columns the newest discoveries and invention, and, even more important, makes her comparisons and judges the prices.

SHE MAKES UP HER MIND BEFORE SHE GOES OUT TO BUY

Get this habit. Read the advertisements in The Enterprise carefully. They bring you valuable information about new and better things. They show you how to have what you want—and how to save money in buying.

ECONOMIC GROUP

TO DISCUSS OUR PRESENT SYSTEM

A. G. Leonard of Farmington To Uphold Present Order With Changes

The Economics Discussion Group which has been meeting on alternate Friday evenings at the residence of R. N. Crossman will meet this week Friday, January 6, at eight o'clock.

The discussion will probably turn upon the present competitive system with changes, which will be upheld by Archie G. Leonard of Farmington; and the present system modified by putting into effect the principles of Henry George, which will be upheld by Mr. J. S. Tindall of Cedar Springs, Michigan.

The group will meet regularly during the winter and will discuss informally the various economic remedies proposed to cure or alleviate the present deplorable conditions.

Men and women interested in this subject are invited to be present Friday evening.

N. H. Power Suffers After-Effects Of Fall

One of the most "regular of the regulars" missed some time about town the past week, when City Clerk N. H. Power was forced to curtail his activities. After-effects of a fall suffered on December 23 cropped up and caused him some distress.

Mr. Power fell on the icy sidewalk in front of the Judd Webster residence, striking the back of his head, and bruising his side. He was rendered unconscious for a short time and was taken home. He has been under the care of Dr. Z. R. Aschenbrenner.

Farmington To Meet Trenton At Home Gym

The Farmington High School basketball team will meet the Trenton High five here Friday. There will be a dance at the high school after the game. Admission to the game is twenty-five cents and to the dance ten cents.

Use the want-ads as a profitable medium for selling and buying.
