E. L. Phillips, Attorney, 516 Pontiac Bank Bldg., Pontiac, Mich.
STATE OF MICHIGAN
Circuit Court for the County of Oakland in Chancery
Rudolph E. Betts, State Banking Commissioner, Plaintiff.
vs.
No. 14,725
Farmington State Savings Bank,
a Michigan Bank Corporation, Defendant.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Pontiac in said County, on the 18th day of April, A. D. 1933.
Present: Honorable Frank L. Covert, Circuit Judge.

The Petition of the Receiver of Farmington State Savings Bank having been filed in the above cause, from which it appears that Charles V. Hays has a claim against said Bank and has refused to assign to said Receiver under the condition that the Receiver surrender certain notes secured by Isaac and the said Bank, and convey certain real estate, described in said Petition, he as security for the indebtedness of said Bank to said Bank, and that said proposed transaction would involve the payment of money and the conveyance of other real estate subject to a land contract and the effect of the whole of said transaction would be to satisfy all of the indebtedness of said Bank to Farmington State Savings Bank, and it appearing to the Court that hearing on said Petition should be had after notice has been given of the same.

On motion of E. L. Phillips, Attorney for the Receiver, IT IS ORDERED that all creditors of said Bank who are interested in said Bank, or who appear before said court at the Court House in the City of Pontiac in said County of Oakland, on the 27th day of May, A. D. 1933, at the opening of Court on said day or as soon thereafter as a counsel can be heard, to show cause if any, why they should be allowed to file claims against said Bank, as above recited, and to be heard on said cause.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that notice of the hearing of the given by publishing a copy thereof in the Farmington Enterprise, of Farmington, Michigan, two weeks in succession, prior to the date set for hearing, and by serving a copy of the order in a conspicuous place at the office of the Receiver of said Bank.

FRANK L. COVERT,
Circuit Judge.

Lynn D. Allen,
Clerk.
John Butler,
Deputy.
