A New Deal

That's what FUL-VUE frames give your eyes. For a very small investment, you can learn what it means to really see. The old styles of frames are as antiquated as the horse and buggy.

Try FUL-VUE frames and let your eyes decide.

"AFTER THAT EXPERIENCE I HAD MY TELEPHONE PUT BACK IN"

A strange noise at the window... smoke filling the room... sudden sickness in the night. With no telephone in the house, such emergencies may become critical. But with a telephone at hand, help can be summoned instantly, and family and property safeguarded. Just one such call may be worth more than the cost of telephone service for a lifetime.

Telephone service costs only a few cents a day. Order a telephone today at any Telephone Business Office. Installation will be made promptly.

SOFTBALL GAMES

Walled Lake residents witnessed a full week of softball games last week. Games were played on the Tuttle diamond each night.

The Walled Lake aggregation battled to an 11-inning tie with Novi on Monday night, the game being called on account of darkness. On Tuesday night, the two Walled Lake teams known as the Mud Hens and the White Owls engaged in a contest, the White Owls winning. Walled Lake trounced North Farmington, 7-4, on Wednesday night and won from Milford, 9-7, on Thursday. The Mud Hens evened their score with the White Owls by trimming them Friday.

On Monday night of this week, the Walled Lake boys were defeated by Northville, 9-7. The White Owls and Mud Hens are planning to play games each Tuesday and Thursday night. Any persons interested in playing softball are invited to try out for the teams. Large crowds have witnessed each of the contests.

The Walled Lake team also desires games with outside aggregations.

WALLED LAKE WINS

The Walled Lake baseball team won from Hartland Sunday to the tune of 7-6. Douglas Tuttle, pitched seven innings and was rewarded by Bob Utley who finished. A double-header is scheduled for next Sunday against Rose Center. The first game will begin at 1:30.

WATERFRONT FILM PRESENTED NOVEL SITUATION TO STARS

Screen actors have found themselves in many strange situations during the filming of thousands of pictures in Hollywood's history, but no assignment was so bizarre as the experience of a group of Chinese atmosphere players in "I Cover the Waterfront," Reliance's

Claudette Colbert and Ernest Torrence in "I Cover the Waterfront" romantic thriller for United Artists.

They were paid to be modern Jonahs, only instead of whales, they had to live inside huge sharks.

This fantastic situation, which in reality is not as fantastic as it sounds, according to authorities who for years have been combating the smuggling of Chinese into California, was necessary to fit the story action in the picture based on Max Miller's best-selling book, "I Cover the Waterfront."

Caught Huge Sharks
Ben Lyon, playing opposite Claudette Colbert, has the role of a reporter who aids Federal men in running down a gang of pseudo-fishermen, headed by Ernest Torrence, whose real racket is smuggling Chinese into the United States. After landing herds of the undesirable aliens under the very noses of the authorities, the mystery finally is solved. The Chinese are inside shark liveries.

In bringing this remarkable action to the screen, the film company, under the direction of James Cruze, the man responsible for "The Covered Wagon," "Old Ironsides" and other epical productions, cruised the high seas off the California coast until it encountered a school of huge sharks.

After a battle lasting for hours and while cameras and sound equipment recorded the action, harpooners succeeded in landing several of the monsters, some of them 25 feet long and weighing three tons. These "el chuant" sharks are among the largest found anywhere on the globe, and this particular school was the biggest ever known in California.

Returning more than 100 miles to the waterfront location at the port of San Pedro, where the United States battle fleet and the U. S. S. Constitution, popularly known as Old Ironsides, added to the "atmosphere," the sharks were strung up with the aid of steel cranes, and the Chinese placed inside them for some of the climatic scenes in "I Cover the Waterfront."

When

ELECTRIC HOT WATER SERVICE

offers so many advantages...

BY ALL MEANS ENJOY IT!

It costs $3 a month to operate a 40-gallon electric water heater ($4 for a 60-gallon and $5 for an 80-gallon). But heating water electrically has numerous advantages. Here is what an electric water heater brings you:

(1) Convenience. Completely automatic, an electric water heater ends running up and down stairs to light the tank, and waiting for water to heat. Built like a thermos bottle, its thoroughly insulated walls keep the heat inside and secure an abundance of hot water when you want it.

(2) Dependability. Once the heater is installed, you can forget it. Day and night, summer and winter, year in and year out, it furnishes a constant supply of steaming hot water, instantly available at a turn of the faucet.

Abundant hot water is a great comfort in the home—for bath and shower, for shaving and washing, for cooking, cleaning, laundering and dish-washing. And an electric water heater provides ideal hot water service.

AS LITTLE AS
$10 FIRST PAYMENT
(balance in convenient monthly payments) places an electric water heater in your home.
