

WALLED LAKE

Edited by Mrs. L. M. Philp, Phone Walled Lake 57.

Married men of Walled Lake and the single men played a game of hard ball at the school diamond Sunday. The single men were victorious but the married men are undaunted and another game is being planned.

A silver collection brought $10 which passed on to the Civic Welfare Club.

HOME COMING IS INTERESTING TIME AT WALLED LAKE

Walled Lake's Homecoming proved to be an interesting event this year. The group, mostly elderly people met at the Baptist church Saturday at 10:30 a. m. During the morning sessions, memories were told for Mrs. Joseph Chapman, who died at Orion; Mrs. Jane Vreeland Powers, Grass Lake; Ned C. Richardson, Pontiac; Mrs. Rebecca Sage Welch, Lansing; Mrs. Donald Stuart, Detroit; Mrs. Harriet Matilda Richardson, Walled Lake; William L. Pennell of Kirkhaven, Minnesota; Daisy Rosa Rose, Walled Lake; John Ellwood, Walled Lake; Lillian Ross Crumb, California; George Moore, Manistee; Mrs. Nora Jones Holmes, Pontiac; Aileen Coe, Commerce; William Lare, Walled Lake; Laura Church Southernland, Argentine; and Harvey Dodge.

Oscar Kelsey, of Redford was present for the twenty-ninth consecutive year. He has attended each of the Homecomings. Mrs. Sibley of Pontiac had missed one meeting and that because she was out of the state.

A FRIEND
(In memory of Carlton Utley)
A friend has gone from out our midst.
A friend alike to young and old,
A friend, in sorrow or in bliss,
A friend, with heart of purest gold.

A friend who played the game of life,
And played it hard, and played it square.
A friend who'd stay, in time of strife,
And give his friend, the lion's share.

share.
A friend who when he came to call
Brought joy and gladness to our home,
A friend who'd give his last, his all,
That his friends might not stand alone.

That sort of friend is hard to find,
And when they're called and have to go,
The friends, whom he has left behind,
At times, must wonder why tis so.

This friend leaves memories behind,
That fill our hearts with pleasant thoughts,
And in due time his friends will find,
The goodness that his life has wrought.

This friend has earned his just reward,
And we his friends need not despair,
But do our best, and thank our Lord,
That we can meet him over there.

(Franklin) J. B. Wood.
