The Walled Lake basketball teams are approaching another season.

The boys started practice on Tuesday, November 14. Since four of last year's first team graduated, it will be necessary to build a new outfit. The first game is with Farmington here on December 5.

The girls will start practice on Wednesday, November 22. Most of their former team is back. Their first game now scheduled is in the latter part of January.

The boys coach is Mr. Hurshand, the girls is Mrs. Wood, both teachers in the school.

Walled Lake won its initial debate of the season from Redford High School when the two teams met last Friday afternoon.

Resolved to defeat the Federal Government Should Own and Operate the Radio Stations. Redford upheld the affirmative and Walled Lake the negative. This was the first of a series of four preliminary debates in which Walled Lake, as a member of the Michigan Forensic League, will engage. If the local team wins all of these four preliminary debates the team will be eligible to enter the elimination series for state championship.

Walled Lake's team, composed of Viola Ehrcke, Don Post and George Goodrich, vigorously upheld the present system of radio broadcasting and stifled the opponents' arguments for the proposed change. Mr. King is coaching the team. The judges, in voting, were unanimous in their decision for the Resorators.

The Parent Teachers Association will meet Thursday night, November 23, at the Walled Lake Consolidated School.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Paul Voelker, will be the speaker. There will be several other numbers on the program. Mr. Nesman, our former superintendent, and Mrs. Nesman will be here.

There will be a potluck supper served at 6:30. Everyone is invited.

On Wednesday, November 22, Walled Lake will hold an assembly sometime in the morning. This will be a musical hour given by Daniel Patterson who will be accompanied by Mr. Hansen, principal of the school. The programme will include violin and saxophone music.

Baptist Church News

An Ex-Gangster of Chicago will speak at the Baptist Church of Walled Lake on Monday evening, November 27th at eight o'clock. His subject will be "From Racketeer to Pulpit."

Rev. Louis D. Hill, was formerly a truck driver for a Chicago newspaper and in off-time was a lieutenant for Al Capone. He is well informed as to the gangster methods of controlling the elections; in the underworld's ways of evading the law, and the liquor smuggler's game. He has conveyed truck loads of liquor through Chicago. He did time for his crimes and while a fugitive from justice was converted in Bob Adams mission in Springfield. Since that time he has been active in evangelistic and Bible Study services.

Rev. Hill recently concluded two weeks of services in Pontiac, where he was heard before a congregation of over 2,000. This service is open to the public.

Rev. Wik's Sunday morning topic will be "We Give Thanks" and his evening topic will be "A Challenge to Christianity."

B. Y. P. U. will convene at 6:30 p. m.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held at the Baptist Church on Wednesday evening of next week.
