F. H. S. CAGE TEAM

WILL OPEN THE SEASON FRIDAY

Farmington High School will open its 1933-34 basketball season Friday evening of this week, when the team journeys to Wayne for the first battle on the schedule. A game with Walled Lake will follow, on Tuesday night, at Walled Lake, and the first League contest will be played Friday night of next week, December 8, at Trenton.

Farmington, defending champions is expected to be pretty hard for honors by Trenton's squad of returned veterans. All five regulars of last year and all the first string substitutes returning at Trenton makes the outlook there so good that it is reported the Trenton coach has scheduled for the first game this Friday night a team far above Trenton's school classification, in the expectation that a defeat will destroy the overconfidence which he fears.

Popular Questions As

Topics Of Sermons

Pastor E. W. Palmer of the Baptist Church has announced a series of five popular questions as sermon topics for the evening services during the month of December. The order will be as follows: December 3, "What is the Matter with the World?"; December 10, "Where is the Missing Link?"; December 17, "Is Hitler the Anti-Christ?"; December 24, "What is Next?"; December 31, "Will Jesus Come in 1934?"

Believing the bible to be a store house of general information, each of these questions will be given scriptural answers. The public is invited to come and bring their bibles and notebooks. There will be special musical numbers at all services.

And then there was the oldtime spendthrift who never complained when the young folks kept the kerosene lamp burning a couple hours late at a party.

Every government official or valiant accounting of it, showing where and how each dollar is spent. This is a fundamental principle of democratic government.
