CALLS FROM ABROAD MARK-FAMILY CHRISTMAS DINNER

Last Christmas will not soon be forgotten by the members of the Mitchell and King families, who were in Chicago, and who gathered for Christmas dinner at the home of William H. Mitchell in Lake Forest. What made the event so notable was that telephone calls to Paris, London and Pasadena brought the voices of absent members to the Lake Forest celebrants. The first call made was to London, when John Payne Kellogg, Mr. Mitchell's brother-in-law, spoke to his father, John P. Kellogg, Sr. The call to Paris was from Mr. Mitchell's aunt to her daughter, Mrs. Walter Dillingham. The Pasadena call was made by Mrs. Robert Hunter.
